What a weekend. Our annual Social weekend at 12 Mile reserve is over for another year. The fishing was the best it has been for some time now, with most people catching cod and a couple of trout cod being caught. There was even a half believable story of a metery being dropped at the boat. Some better network and it may be a different story. There was a small reddie fingerling caught as a by-catch in a shrimp pot. The fishing was almost overshadowed by the Twister comp on Saturday night - even the big kids got involved (after a few beverages). Congratulations to Chris for taking out the Seniors biggest fish with the only legal fish getting caught at 555mm. The Junior and Senior no fish draw where taken out by Iggy and Hoges respectively.

Also Congratulations to perspective junior member Heidi on her first-ever fish as well as long-time member Gen for getting her first Murray Cod. Junior member Gus also managed his first-ever cod. He ended up landing three for the weekend.

Our next outing is an open outing on the first weekend in April. Happy fishing!

Spicy Apple Cake

In a large basin, put 2 large apples – peeled, cored and cut into 1.5 cm chunks

Add 1 cup castor sugar and mix together.

1 tspn bicarb soda

1 ½ tspns ground cinnamon

½ tspn nutmeg

1 ¾ cup plain flour

Mix the spices soda and flour together and sift over apples.

1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts or pecans - optional

1 egg – whisked

1 ½ tspns vanilla essence

125 g butter – melted and cooled

Mix altogether.

Press mixture into 23-24 cm round tin, or oblong lamington pan lined with baking paper.

Mix ¼ cup sugar and ½ tspn cinnamon and sprinkle over cake before putting in oven.

Bake in moderate oven for 40 – 45 minutes for round tin, 30 mins for lamington pan.

New NBN Tower at Burrumbuttock

The tower is now active, so anybody in the coverage footprint can apply through their chosen Retail Service Provider (RSP's) for a new fixed wireless NBN service.

The Fixed Wireless service is an improvement on the existing satellite service in relation to available download allowance plans, as well as reduced delay in the network.

Plans are available through a large number of providers, so it is worth checking plans and offers.

NBN as the wholesaler is not permitted to advise on RSP's, so residents and businesses should do their own research.

The coverage extends around 14km from the tower, however, there are some areas where terrain will block the signal.

The best way to determine if Fixed Wireless is available is to check your address at this website:

<https://www.nbnco.com.au/connect-home-or-business/check-your-address>.

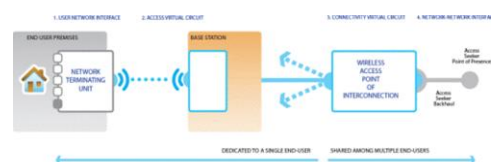

This will indicate if the delivery technology is Fixed Wireless or Satellite.

It is important to note that many locals will be using satellite, but can now switch to Fixed Wireless if their location is covered by the tower.

Brocklesby/Burrumbuttock Netball Club

Well, here we are finally, staring down the barrel of round one. At this point, you are one of two players. You are either player 1, who is raring and ready to go. Or you are player 2, who still gets out of breath jogging to the clothesline.

Our trainings have definitely picked up in their intensity in the last few weeks as we prepare to meet Billabong Crows in the first round of the season. Billabong Crows are always a tough side to play as they are fit and young, so we have a tough season opener.

Our senior netballers have been having some practice matches which will help us immeasurably for our first game. Our first game was against Dederang, and it was then we realised we could have four really strong sides on our hands this year! A couple of weeks after, we played Thurgoona and this weekend we're playing against Kiewa-Sandy Creek. This is going to be an awesome day, because not only are they a great group of girls to play against, the footballers are having a practice match at the same time, so it will feel just like a normal footy/netball Saturday!

I'm extremely happy to announce that after months of grovelling and begging, we finally have U13s coaches! A big thanks to Georgia Ehlers and Grace Unthank for taking on the job! We're all very excited to see what they can do with the great bunch of girls they have in their team.

With even more good news, the Netball Club would like to acknowledge Sophie and Ronnie Boulton and the new addition to their family! Congratulations on the safe arrival of little Judd Boulton!

Lastly, we had some junior and senior girls try out of the Hume Representative team on 13th March. These teams consist of a 13s, 15s, 17s and an A grade. The Saints have always fared well in the Hume Rep teams so we can't wait to hopefully see some Saints in the team.

That's about it from me,
Go Saints!

Media Release

$10k & $50k applications open to help rebuild regional communities

The Morrison Government is continuing to back regional Australia, providing small grant funding to help towns and communities recover and grow on the other side of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Local MP Sussan Ley says applications are now open for the new Rebuilding Regional Communities Program, offering local business and community or sporting groups a chance to apply for up to $10,000 or $50,000 to fund initiatives for places hit hardest by the pandemic.

“After experiencing drought, then the impact from bushfires and floods in recent times, COVID-19 brought us a bunch of whole new challenges to deal with.

“This funding can help local groups restart activities and social support networks as they recover from the setbacks caused by COVID.”

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Regional Development Barnaby Joyce said the Coalition Government had a strong track record of investing in initiatives and projects which create jobs and make our regions stronger, both economically and socially - through this new funding we're building on that.

“As a regional MP, I know how tough it has been for community groups to raise necessary funds to sustain operations and provide important services across our communities.”

The Government is partnering with the Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal to deliver the program, with funding available from two streams to support regional initiatives.

Eligible projects can include...

- Purchase equipment or resources to strengthen organisations
- Supporting training / attracting volunteers
- Events and activities to reconnect the community
- Enhancing community spaces
- Support and services to assist vulnerable people, and those experiencing disadvantage

Applications/information is here: <https://frrr.org.au/funding/place/src-rebuilding-rural-communities/>

Presidents Report

Welcome one and all to another year (Covid pending) of football and netball.

We look forward to seeing you all at our First home game on the 2nd April against the Billabong Crows at the Burrumbuttock Recreation Reserve.

We would also like to acknowledge the passing of one of our club legends David Schilg, a multiple Club Best and Fairest winner and two time Azzi medallist. We extend our condolences to his family.

The Brocklesby Burrumbuttock Saints Football club has had a very busy off-season resulting in over twenty new recruits (including our juniors) and we welcome them and their families to our club.

A special mention to our new coach Peter Cook (well done Luke Schilg and Jarrod Koschitzke for their work in securing him) who has done a sterling job both attracting new players to the club and ensuring that our seniors are both fit and fired up for our first game after a couple of successful Practice Matches against Tallangatta and Kiewa Sandy Creek.

Also all the best to Danny Williams as he takes over from Aaron Livermore as coach of the Reserves. Nathan (wiffa) Powell and Braden Eddy will be coaching the u14s and 17s again this year, both have been doing a great job with all of our Juniors.

Some of our players have also been busy over the past few months in their efforts to bolster our future junior numbers with the Net Set Go and Auskick numbers by adding to their families.

We welcome these new additions to the Brocklesby Burrumbuttock Saints family and look forward to seeing them all at the footy wearing the red white and black colours!!!

We also hope to see all our players and supporters at our players Auction at the Brocklesby Function Centre, after Round 4 on the 30th April.

We again thank all of our sponsors and a special mention to our Major sponsors SS&A, Adrenaline, Grilled, and our new major sponsor the Astor Hotel and remind everyone to support those that support us.

Last but not least, a big thank you to all our volunteers and helpers. As the old proverb goes, many hands make light work and we appreciate everything that anybody does for us.

A huge thank you also to Steve Koschitzke who retired from the President's role after a stellar thirteen years at the helm. The amount of work effort and passion that Steve and Leanne put into the job was a herculean effort and was the catalyst for the sustained success that we experienced over that time.

GO SAINTS!

John Heagney and Taki

Wirraminna News

Wirraminna was a very busy place this month. Schools are back, and we have had a Birdlife Australia event and a visit by some participants from the Weeds Conference in Albury. It has been such a pleasure to have so many people enjoying the place that so many of us have worked to create Stacee has hosted several schools already during the first school term, and has many bookings for terms two and three. Schools bring students from Kinder to year 6, and Stacee has activities to suit them all. She sees it as very important that the children get out into the natural environment and begin to understand its diversity and the life that occurs there. The younger children may do a Bush Treasure Hunt, in which they are asked to search for a number of “treasures” such as a feather, a nice piece of bark, and a flower. This encourages them to explore and to look for natural things. While doing this they can notice so many other things.

The older children do a “ghost” hunt, during which they search for white cut-out silhouettes of the animals and birds scattered around the park that feature on our ghost sign. These are animals that used to occur in our region, but are now mostly gone. Only one is extinct; most of the others still occur elsewhere, but are no longer here. A couple were thought to be gone from our area but have since turned up again, maybe as a result of all the landcare planting. The ghost sign is near the Discovery Centre.

Another activity involves a search for animal puppets that are hidden in the habitat that they use (in a tree, under a log, in a grass tussock) while the students have to decide which animal is in the “wrong” habitat. This activity encourages a discussion of the importance of different habitats for different species.

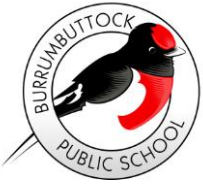

We have quite often met families visiting Wirraminna because their children have been here with their school and want to show it off to their parents. These school visits are among the most important reasons for creating and maintaining Wirraminna.

Last weekend Birdlife Australia held a gathering of participants in the Birds on Farms surveys, which involve repeated 20 minute bird counts over a two hectare site on their farms. During the morning two groups did a survey, one on the Wirraminna Park and the other in the Burrumbuttock Woodland. Five species were seen in the woodland while 16 species were seen in the park. This reflects the complex vegetation environment we have created in the park, while the woodland is still a work in progress.

The Weeds Conference visitors had a fairly quick visit, but we had some interesting conversations about weed management and they were very complimentary about our park.

Burrumbuttock Public School

Personal Best for All

"There was once a wide, windswept place, near nowhere and close to forgotten, that was filled with all the things that no one wanted."

So begins Helen Ward's modern-day fable 'The Tin Forest' about a man who transforms a junkyard into a nature wonderland. This wonderful story underpinned our learning in Banksia following Clean Up Australia Day, with discussions about sustainability and the importance of recycling. Students were inspired to create their own tin forest craft, and the short sound of the letter "i" as in "tin" was our sound of the week.

BURRUMBUTTOCK PRESCHOOL

We are becoming writers at Burrumbuttock Preschool. We already have children exploring their full names in Term 1. We believe that children are very capable beings and we love to provide them with a learning environment that encourages them to take on challenges like learning their last names.

We have noticed Bogong moths visiting our Preschool this week. We explored them in the yard, collected one in our bug collector to take a closer look at and read the Traditional Wiradjuri Aboriginal story Myee, the Bogong Moth Woman that shares how the wild flower gained their colours. We have also recently learning more about our resident Golden Orb spiders. We have two of them, one living near our flag poles and the other on the pole of a shade structure. We have learnt about their golden webs, what they eat and that they have a smaller spider that lives with them to do the cleaning of the web by eating smaller insects that get caught in the web.

We have also enjoyed creating class orange flowers with our hand prints for Harmony Day and Learning about Artists that paint with their mouth or feet as Fleur was able to share with us a painting by Beryl Hanlon who paints with her mouth that a friend let her borrow.
