ISSUE 52

October/November 2018

It's party town

There will be a Street Scape Party in Henty on November 9 that will mark more than the new streetscape in Sladen Street. It is also a birthday party for our bank and a celebration of our new fire station and revamped railway station.

It is 20 years since the Henty community bank branch of Bendigo Bank opened its doors in Sladen Street bringing so many benefits to the town and district. It is an anniversary that deserves three cheers. Around the corner in Allen Street is our grand new fire and rescue station that opened a few months ago.

Across the tracks from Sladen Street the railway precinct has seen station buildings including the craft shop revamped and repainted and the platform resurfaced. It looks sparkling. And after a long wait, many shops in Sladen Street received new verandas and the whole shopping centre's footpath has been repaved. Huge advance from the patchwork of broken concrete that was there before.

Henty has a lot to celebrate in 2018 and on Friday, November 9 we will do just that. Sladen Street will be closed at noon to allow the street party to happen without worrying about dodging cars and trucks.

Children's rides, face painting and a hair colouring station will be a part of the festivities and free of charge. Food outlets will also gear up for the occasion, so residents can enjoy the whole evening out. Businesses in the street will hold a market day.

For entertainment there will be a short performance from Henty's primary schools and live music by Wobbly Boot in front of the Doodle Cooma Arms from 6.30pm. Fireworks will erupt from the silos yard at 9.00pm.

On the official side of the celebrations, Greater Hume Council will formally open the Sladen Street upgrade at 4.00pm followed by the Bendigo Bank cutting its birthday cake.

As part of the day the Bendigo Bank will hold poetry competitions before the event. First prize will be a Bendigo Bank account with $100 deposited and second prize is an account with $50. There are three categories, two of which are for primary school children. They are Sub-Junior (Years K, 1, 2 and 3) and Juniors (Years 4, 5 and 6). Their poems must be about Henty with a reference to the Bendigo Bank. The third category is open to all, but the poem must be about the Henty Bendigo Bank.

The winning poems will be read out at the party. All entries must include the poet's name, a contact phone number and address on the back of the entry.

Entries are to be submitted to the Bendigo Bank in Henty by the close of business on Wednesday October 31.

He also bird watches, recording Henty wildlife and enjoying bird atlasing, with reports going to the Australian Bird Atlasing Group at the end of each season.

MADGE WOOLSTEN-CROFT

Aged 96, Madge grew up knitting four-ply baby booties, but within the month she had restricted her passion for the Peter Mac Can-

FRRR ABC Heywire Youth Innovation Grant Step-Up Project awarded $5,500 funding

The Foundation for Rural and Regional Renewal (FRRR) recently announced that 20 communities will receive grants to pilot youth-developed ideas, thanks to the FRRR ABC Heywire Youth Innovation Grants program.

Greater Hume Council in partnership with Lockhart Shire's FRRR ABC Heywire Youth Innovation Grant Step Up Project was one of the successful applications. The ideas originated at the 20th ABC Heywire Regional Youth Summit in February 2018 and address the tough topics facing rural and regional youth.

The 2018 projects tackle issues ranging from mental health and drug prevention, to youth disengagement and learning about healthy relationships, celebrating Indigenous culture, connecting new Australians to agricultural careers and aligning medical professionals with their communities.

The grants are possible thanks to support from the Department of Infrastructure, Regional Development and Cities; The Sally Foundation; Findex Community Fund; the Myer Foundation; and several private donors.

The Step Up project supported by an FRRR ABC Heywire Youth Innovation Grant will be a youth led and youth driven project and will increase youth awareness of local employment and engagement opportunities through workshops in Culcairn and Lockhart, and a 'Festival of Possibilities' showcasing youth achievements.

Grants such as FRRR Heywire Step Up will allow young people to address the issues that matter to them in a way that other young people believe will resonate well. Overall the grant is a fantastic opportunity to make a real difference in the Greater Hume Council and Lockhart Shire community.

Boots and beanies Vacation Care Day

After a long walk to begin their adventure the children from the Henty Early Childhood Association set up their camp for the day. They were ready for a great time! A couple of tools had been packed to share along with some lengths of rope. The children set to work in small groups to build with the natural resources available in the common. Some children cleverly engineered a swing, which was kindly shared with everyone.

Another group designed and set a trap to catch passing animals, if any felt confident enough to come close to the group of twenty pre-schoolers and primary school students enjoying their day of vacation care.

A large fallen tree provided a place to climb and was the beginning of a 'King' adventure for some. Some wool, paint, and brown paper scrap books added to the children's use of the natural resources found in the environment. The resources inspired weaving, drawing and other creative endeavours.

The children cooked a BBQ lunch and finished their meal with some sweet treats made from toasted marshmallows. On the journey back the adventurers claimed the day a success and a lot of fun.

Henty Early Childhood Association Inc. offers Vacation Care the first Tuesday and Wednesday of term breaks. For more information call on 69293472 or follow us on Facebook.

Wraps leader dies

The sudden death of Jayne Goodes, who took over the presidency from the originator of Wraps With Love, Sonya Gidley King, was a shock to all. Jayne had worked in London, in Nigeria as a colour consultant, and then in successful businesses in Sydney in colour and fashion. Her expertise was well used in the formation of thousands of wraps.

Last date for delivery this year is November 23. The warehouse opens January 30, 2019.

A three-day exhibition was held in the City of Sydney with over 500 people attending the opening by the Lord Mayor. At Sydney Children's Hospital Randwick groups of ladies are learning to knit, including staff, volunteers, visitors and parents.

Pennant Hills library knitters have reached a total of 2,345 wraps in 11 years. Henty hopes to reach 1,000 wraps within the next year.

"I have never received such a gift in my whole life" said a teenager from a farming village five hours north-east of Phnom Penh.

You can be part of Wrap with Love with the dozens of knitters and crocheters from our area. Just see Yvonne Booth (69293236) or Alice Hore (69293189).

Where some wraps have gone during 2018: Australia 4,013, Cambodia 660, Sierra Leone 600, Thailand 521, Ukraine 299 and World Vision (mainly Africa) 17,125.

Taylor sculpture unveiled

In perfect spring weather 300-400 people gathered at the Bicentennial Park to witness the unveiling of the sculpture of Headlie Taylor, revolutionary inventor and self-taught engineer. They were welcomed by MC Dugald McKay (great grandson of H V McKay) and students of Henty Public School's Concert Band.

Taylor's descendants from across Australia, interested visitors and locals witnessed an historical event as the impressive sculpture was unveiled by Headlie's youngest son, 92-year-old John Taylor from Geelong. He was joined by guest speaker Tim Fischer AC and assisted by Melbourne sculptor Paul Smits.

Those gathered were entertained by senior students from St Paul's Primary School who sang the chorus from Paul Kelly's From Little Things, Big Things Grow. Using Taylor's words, the students retold the inventor's story from his diary notes of his determination to perfect the machine that would revolutionise the harvesting of grain for maximum yields worldwide.

The magnificent bronze sculpture of Taylor at work at his anvil now graces the park in front of the Museum to welcome all travellers along the Olympic Highway at Henty.

Col Eulenstein's 1947 Bedford truck, featuring a working G-Well loading bagged grain, added to the occasion. Mr Kerry Pietsch's authentically restored Sunshine Auto Header (a later invention of Headlie Taylor) was on display at the unveiling.

Event organisers gratefully acknowledge all those who assisted in any way and contributed to the event's success. After four years of detailed planning and extensive fundraising, Taylor's achievement has been recognised, superbly sculpted for present and future generations to appreciate.

The late Colin Wood, and project chairman, Bruce Taylor, followed Taylor's motto of nil desperandum (never despair), and continued in a quest to see his work recognised.

The sculptor, Paul Smits, wrote on his return to Melbourne: "The last couple of days have been very memorable. It really was a special moment for me and my family (his wife and both parents attended the unveiling).

"It was obviously a special moment for Henty too. I had a great time in Henty and met some lovely people. It's just so good to see the community get together to celebrate and remember Headlie as a great innovator, inventor and Australian."

Greater Hume Council's Tourist Trail now boasts a significant landmark, on the Olympic Highway in Henty, with a special story to share of an invention created in a blacksmith's shop in the town 100 years ago. It is still relevant to current agricultural practice.

ABC TV Landline program will screen the story on Sunday, September 23, 2018. Also available on Three Bags Full ABC Radio Podcast and on iView. Visit the museum headlietaylorheadermuseum.org.au

What will they think of next?

The prestigious Henty Machine of the Year Award was won by Simon Schinckel with his Schinckel hay rake from South Australia.

A total of 24 machines and equipment at the cutting edge of agricultural technology were showcased at the recent Henty Machinery Field Days. A strong, super reliable hay rake, designed and manufactured in Australia won the coveted 2018 Henty Machine of the Year Award.

In many cases, the winning machine has gone on to become a standard piece of equipment on farms throughout Australia.

Highly commended was the Post Straightener, which uses a small amount of energy to recycle quality old steel posts, eliminating the need to manufacture new ones. Some of the other entries ranged from large seed drills to a camping generator, a two wheel drive electric ag. motor bike and a cattle crush.

Stop It or Cop It

Residents living in some Greater Hume Council towns and villages are concerned about the speed drivers are travelling and it appears that some drivers have the attitude that the speed limit doesn't apply to them.

Recent traffic surveys show that over 30% of drivers are exceeding the 50km/h posted speed limit in some areas and not just by a few kilometres an hour.

50km/h is the urban speed limit in NSW, side impact crashes can occur in urban areas and the risk of fatal or serious injuries dramatically increases from impacts at 50km/h and above.

40 km/h school zones and the 50km/h limit exist to keep communities safe at all times and that's why NSW Police Highway Patrol are enforcing speed zones through towns and villages where speeding is known to be a risk.

It's your responsibility as a driver to travel no faster than the posted speed limit, there's no excuse -

STOP IT OR COP IT.

Use it or lose it!

In July 2018 NSW Train-Link introduced a six month coach trial service between Wagga Wagga and Albury/Wodonga, allowing travel between the two cities in the morning, in either direction, and then return in the afternoon. The trial is designed to provide the community with a convenient day return service to complement the existing XPT trains serving the region. For more information and bookings visit transportnsw.info/regional or call 13 22 32.

Timetables are available at the Henty Newsagency, Henty Library and information centre at the railway station. Bookings can be made at the Newsagency or online.

The service will be reviewed at the end of the year to determine if there has been sufficient patronage for it to be continued in its current format.

Keep your cool

The Doodle Cooma Craft Shop at the Railway Station is selling the new Henty stubby holders at $8.95 or two for $15. This top quality product shows a horse drawn harvester in a wheat paddock and gold lettering. A gift for any occasion – maybe Australia Day.

In the middle of nowhere!

The passenger steamer SS Warrimoo was quietly knifing its way through the waters of the mid-Pacific on its way from Vancouver to Australia. The navigator had just finished working out a star fix and brought the master, Captain John Phillips, the result. The Warrimoo's position was LAT. 0° 31' N and LONG. 179 30' W. The date was December 31, 1899.

"Know what this means?" First Mate Payton broke in, "We're only a few miles from the intersection of the Equator and the International Date Line". Captain Phillips was prankish enough to take full advantage of the opportunity for achieving the navigational freak of a lifetime. He called his navigators to the bridge to check and double check the ships position.

He changed course slightly so as to bear directly on his mark. Then he adjusted the engine speed. The calm weather and clear night worked in his favour.

At midnight the SS Warrimoo lay on the Equator at exactly the point where it crossed the International Date Line! The consequences of this bizarre position were many. The forward part (bow) of the ship was in the Southern Hemisphere and the middle of summer. The rear (stern) was in the Northern Hemisphere and in the middle of winter. The date in the aft part of the ship was December 31, 1899. Forward it was January 1, 1900.

This ship was therefore not only in two different days, two different months, two different years, two different seasons...but in two different centuries - all at the same time!

Which just goes to show that truth really can be stranger than fiction.

Tattoo artists

No sooner had Lachlan Coe and his accompanying 25 band members arrived in Scotland in 2017 for the Edinburgh Tattoo, than they were full into practice for their musical presentation.

A member of the Albury Scots School Band, Lachlan took part in three days of rehearsals and one run through the programme to provide 25 shows in August 2017. A warm up session for each concert for the 750-800 performers (dancers and musicians) proved invaluable for the memorisation of 25 pieces they had to learn for the performances.

Lachlan, and friend Allan Forge, attended a Probus meeting recently to perform items with drums and bagpipes. The school was requested to submit a video of their performances to make sure they were up to scratch. The boys had only been learning their instruments for 1½ to two years before the Tattoo. They competed in championships on their way to Edinburgh and recently in the South-East Asia Championships.

Leaving Albury by plane, the band instruments and all their clothing had to be balanced carefully for transport to England. Lachlan's drum was 7 kg, the bass drum weighed 27 kg, plus bagpipes proved to be a logistical nightmare.

The boys' kilts, each with eight yards of pure wool material, along with shoes, laces, flashes, garters, sporran, decorative braid, large belt and red decorated jacket, the load was heavy indeed. Security checks were frequent and the nightly performances saw 2,000 visitors enjoy an outstanding Military Tattoo.

Lachlan's family travelled on a later plane from Melbourne. They were able to visit Perth, Aberdeen, the Isle of Skye, Loch Ness, Newcastle, York, Nottingham, Cambridge and London. They were also able to visit Lachlan during his touring to see him perform at various cities.

Congratulations on an amazing journey and an even more amazing tattoo.

A winning combination

Octogenarian Laurie Slater overcame a serious injury to take the coveted Henty Three Sheep Trial Championship for the fifth time.

Laurie, 85, of Murrumbateman, and his Border Collie, Wondara Jules, outclassed a strong line-up of handlers and their dogs in the Pedigree and Nature's Table Three Sheep Trial. The trial drew over 100 entries.

Slater finished on a total score of 256 – one point ahead of John Perry, Bredbo, in second place with his dog Jazz.

Julie Burkitt, Young, NSW, was third on 253 points

Laurie bred the eight-year-old bitch himself and believed she could be in pup for the first time. She had been crowned Port Fairy Working Sheep Dog Trials Dog of the Year before coming into Henty.

“She did well although she was out of condition as I had a car accident in April, breaking two vertebrae in my back,” Mr Slater said.

“Jules worked no differently than any other day, but you always hope for the best.”

Trek to be rerun

Herb Simphendorfer, of Walla Walla, dressed in vintage clothing arrived at a recent Probus meeting in an Austin 1800 utility. His purpose was to advertise The Trek being rerun from October 7 to 12 this year. Following the roads as close as possible from South Australia to Walla Walla, history will be told in five days instead of the six weeks by wagon in 1868. Celebrations will take place on the Australia Day weekend 2019. Six different committees are organising the rerun featuring a beer hall on Saturday night and a church service on Sunday followed by a street parade.

$1,500 for hay runners

The relationship between South Turrumurra and Henty-Culcairn Uniting Church parishes, since the drought, has seen $1,500 go to the Burrumbuttock Hay Run.

A second concert by the Sydney group “Loosely Women” has achieved this result.

Term 3 - an Aladdin's cave of treasures

Henty Public School Term 3 was certainly very busy with the "Aladdin" Gala Production definitely one of the highlights. Many hours of work go into the productions by both staff and students and they are always an event on the calendar not to be missed. This year's show was no exception with the production showcasing the very talented students that we have at Henty Public School.

Congratulations to Konnar Betts who made it through to the Multicultural Speaking Perspectives Regional Finals and gained second place. Congratulations also to Angus White who represented Riverina at the State Cross Country in Sydney earlier in the term. Well done boys!

The school band competed at both the Albury and Wagga Eisteddfods gaining a first and third place and the school is very proud of their efforts. They also played at the unveiling of the Headlie Taylor sculpture, showcasing their skills to the wider community.

The SRC have been busy fundraising during the term with a delicious cupcake stall and farmer parade. All students dressed as farmers and had fun showing off their outfits in a very country parade. They then feasted ed on some beautiful cupcakes for recess.

Aven Batty, Ben Wenke, Jaymee-Lee Dennington and Lara Male dressed up as farmers to raise money for the drought appeal.

Funds raised went to buying readers for Lakatoro Primary School in Vanuatu and $304.55 was raised and donated to the Buy a Bale Campaign for drought stricken farming communities.

The first PBL Treat Day for this term was an excursion to Wagga Wagga. The Senior classes enjoyed tenpin bowling and the junior classes watched Maya The Bee at the cinemas. The end of term treat day was a visit to the Henty Machinery Field Days where students enjoyed a coding session and performance by George the Farmer plus many other informative displays.

The term has also been filled with other events such as debating, Bernie O'Connor

Football and Netball Carnival, Todd Woodbridge Tennis Finals, Riverina Athletics, Education and Book Week Celebrations, Kindergarten Open Day, Five Ways Tree Planting and Footy Colours Day.

Katelyn Toogood and Misty Chambers tree planting at the Five Ways Reserve

Lastly, the school gives a big thank you to all the wonderful volunteers who assisted with catering at Field Days. This is the biggest fundraiser of the year and the school not only appreciate the help from our school families, but also from the wider community. Funds raised go directly back into the school to help purchase resources and equipment.

Long service awarded

Customer service officer at the Henty branch of the Bendigo Community Bank Sharon Gardiner was presented with her 20 years' service award by NSW State Manager Kylie Douglas recently. A framed certificate was given to Sharon at the annual state conference, the first such certificate to be presented as Sharon is the longest serving staff member in NSW.

It was such a surprise for Sharon to receive the award that she was shell shocked and speechless (if you can believe that!).

Madam president a first

History was made at the recent Community Club Annual General Meeting when Allison Scott took on the role of president from Graham Scholz, becoming the first woman to hold this position.
