EXCITING NEWS FROM THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIAN POTTERY

As part of the Queen's Birthday Honours, Kerrie Ford has been awarded the 'Order of Australia Medal', Kerrie's citation for the honour is: For service to community history, particularly the study of early Australian pottery.

Kerrie is the Co-Owner/Director of the National Museum of Australian Pottery in Holbrook, NSW, which with her husband Geoff, they established in Wodonga, in 1995. They relocated to Holbrook in 2006, where they continue to operate their Museum, which is the only Museum in Australia dedicated to 19th and early 20th Century Australian pottery, the culmination of many years of collecting and research throughout Australia.

Kerrie has spent many years collecting, researching, lecturing and curating travelling exhibitions on and preserving 19th and early 20th Century Australian pottery and has written several books on the subject. An honour well deserved.

NEWS FROM HOLBROOK SUBMARINE MUSEUM

We are always pleased to welcome new members and there are over 70 of us now, and the work of the Friends is always evolving to support the Holbrook Submarine Museum. In this edition there are a couple of new members and changes that I felt worth a special mention. First, we have a new role in FHSM for Morris (Morrie) Jeppesen, who lives at Holbrook. For those who do not already know him, 'Morrie' was the chief Writer at Platypus in the 1980s and has played a major role in submarine administration management and amongst his jobs since leaving the Navy is working for the Greater Hume Shire Council (who own the museum). His living at Holbrook is a great bonus and he has agreed to play a major role with the Friends in the museum, working along with our Vice President Michael Carew. Morrie will be known as the "Friends Volunteer Coordinator" and he has agreed to join the FHSM Committee when a vacancy occurs. Morrie, and Life Member and former Honorary Curator of the Museum, Roger Cooper, have played a major role in moving things along for the AE2 replica and the walkway between the museum and the AE2 framework, which Kerrie Wise, our liaison at the Council, now informs us is all completed. They will now move ahead on setting out photographs and other items for the interior control room of the replica. I'm also very pleased to welcome Kerry Cousins, our first serving female submariner, to our Friends association and we look forward to getting her thoughts and input over time. On the wider front our Honorary Secretary Thor Lund and our Assistant Secretary and Archivist Helen Wyatt are advancing the organisation of the FHSM webpage, the next Webinars (with Peter Horobin, one of our two patrons), and other projects in cooperation with the other members of our Committee who form the development team. This team has been working on various fronts including our links with the SIA's National Submarine Museum and the development of archival systems, new publications, and historic reference material. Well done everyone for your good work and contribution to our Australian submarine heritage.

FAREWELL TO CATHY MANN After a number of years as the Honorary Curator of the Holbrook Submarine Museum, Cathy Mann is leaving to join her husband Gordon in Perth. It is with regret that we say goodbye to Cathy who has done a lot of work on improving the museum over the years. On behalf of the FHSM we thank Cathy for all that she has done for the Museum, and we all wish her the very best of luck in her move to the West. No doubt she will be in touch with the submarine community there and feel at home as she knows so much about our history. All the best Cathy from all the FHSM team and the members and thanks again.

WELCOME THE NEW CURATOR MORRIE JEPPESEN Morrie has been a vital part of the HSM volunteer team for some time. For those of you who don't know Morrie, we thought a brief profile of his background might help introduce him. Morris or as we know him Morrie, joined the RAN as a Junior Recruit in the 17th Intake 1966, had 7 sea postings and worked at various postings including RAN Tactical Electronic Warfare Support Section, Defence Intelligence Organisation and was the Personnel Officer Platypus 86-88. Discharged from full time service in 1996 he became the Rates Clerk at Holbrook Council. In 2000 he got an offer for Reserve time as a Para-Legal at Command Legal at Cerberus. In 2001 he joined Waterhen as the Personnel Officer, then Mine Clearance and Diving Force Element Group Secretary. Between 2005-2008 he was on the Sea King Crash Board of Inquiry Management Team then the BOI Implementation Team at FHQ. Morrie did various Reserve Jobs and in 2012 joined the ADF Chaplains College at Bandiana as course manager before moving the college to Australian Defence Force Academy where he finally discharged in Dec 2019. Morrie met his wife Kathy at the 2nd Freedom of Entry to Holbrook when he was part of the flag party. He joined the Holbrook Submarine Museum as a volunteer in 2009 and has painted the Otway 4 times, not bad for a surface navy sailor. I'm sure you all join me in welcoming Morrie to the position and we look forward to working with you Morrie

PLANT PICK PLATE

What to do with excess mandarins? My young Imperial Mandarin tree has produced its first big crop this season. The fruit is on the small side but sweet, juicy and full of flavour. I searched through my dessert recipe books and selected the following two to share which are absolutely delicious.

Toffeed Mandarins

50 gm butter
1/3 cup (75gm) firmly packed brown sugar
5 medium mandarins (1 kg), peeled & segmented
1 lt (4 cups) vanilla ice-cream

Melt butter in large frying pan, cook sugar and mandarins, stirring until sugar dissolves and mandarins soften slightly. Divide ice-cream among 4 serving bowls and top with warm mandarin toffee. Serve with almond bread.

I think a rich chocolate sauce would be divine drizzled on top.

Mandarin Mouse

4 large mandarins 1 pinch cinnamon
1 pinch nutmeg 90 ml icing sugar
25 ml brandy ½ tbl gelatine
40 ml hot water 190 ml thickened cream

Peel and de-seed mandarins, chop finely then mix with cinnamon, nutmeg, sugar and brandy. Dissolve gelatine in the hot water and add to the mandarin mixture. Beat the cream until stiff and fold into mixture. Lightly grease 4 dariole moulds, pour in mixture and chill for several hours to set.

Serve with fresh mandarin segments or my favourite, rich chocolate sauce. This is a fabulous dessert that can be prepared ahead of time.

A traditional favourite, tangy citrus marmalade can be made combining a medley of 2 or 3 citrus fruit varieties. Chop skins and pulp then soak in water overnight. Consult a comparable marmalade recipe as procedures, ingredients and quantities vary.

Conserves are not for me so alternatively, I shall just eat lots of fresh mandarins - full of Vitamin C and naturally packaged in bite size portions perfect for a snack. Passionate Gardener, June.

HOLBROOK PUBLIC SCHOOL

On Friday, 21 May, we held our Athletics Carnival at the Les O'Brien Precinct, Albury. With so many ribbons given out on the day (too many to note here), it's worthy of mentioning that the true winner on the day was our overall participation, with 142 out of our 148 students attending and competing at the carnival. Well done, Holbrook Public School! Thank you to Miss Hemphill, staff and parents for their support in coordinating and running the day.

Earlier in the month, our debaters had their first debate against Thurgoona Public School. The topic was 'that primary schools should have a three-day weekend', and our team argued a negative position. Isaac Bennetts, Georgie Cardile, Abigail Pincott and Jessica Frana collaborated to develop their arguments, and our three speakers delivered them with confidence. Their strong teamwork led them to win the debate. Tayleah Flewin adopted the role of chairperson, which entailed opening and closing the debate and introducing each speaker from both teams. Congratulations to the Holbrook Debating Team and also Miss Morgan for leading the debaters.

Recently, Kindergarten impressed us all with their assembly item 'I Can Sing a Rainbow.' The students introduced the song using words and key sign. They then sang and signed the entire song - all with a big smile! Congratulations to Miss Hemphill and Kindergarten on such a pleasant performance.

Over the last month, students in Years 3 to 6 have been busily preparing for our Multicultural Perspectives Public Speaking Competition. All students in Years 3 to 6 prepared and delivered high-quality speeches that were meaningful and relevant to our world today. It was insightful to hear how students interpret the topic, their experience with multiculturalism and what it meant to them. Congratulations to all students who participated. Two students from both Stage 2 (Years 3 and 4) and Stage 3 (Years 5 and 6) were chosen to represent our school at the Regional Final at Sturt Public School last week. Our four students were Will Glass, Ollie Cardile, Isaac Bennetts and Georgie Cardile. Congratulations to Ollie Cardile, who won the Stage 2 section and has advanced to the regional level of competition. William Glass also received a Highly Commended award in the Stage 2 competition. Well done to all of our school representatives!

Our Year 6 leaders have been working collaboratively to implement our school Peer Support Program. The program aims to empower students with practical skills and strategies to navigate life and relationships positively. Connectedness, improved resilience, a reduction in bullying behaviours, and a greater sense of possibility are significant program outcomes. Year 6 have been partnered up to conduct small group activities with students of various year levels. Teachers have been very impressed with the leadership shown by our Year 6 cohort and participation from the rest of the students.

Our lunchtime Chess competition has proved to be quite popular amongst students. Students have been testing their skills up against Miss B in the library each Tuesday at lunchtime. Students competed at Thurgoona Public School on Wednesday, 16 June. Three teams, consisting of 11 students from years 3 to 6, faced off against other schools in the region. Byron, Jonty, Xander and Liam competed in Division 2, with the team finishing equal third and Byron winning his first-ever competitive chess game. What an achievement! Our Division 1 team: Ryder, Cooper, Tom and Justin, finished second overall, with the eventual winners being the Border Christian College. Our Division 2 team: Geordie, Chace, Jackson and Eli, won their division. Geordie Geddes was undefeated for the day!

Holbrook Public School is taking enrolments for Kindergarten 2022. Our transition program has begun with Year 5 visiting the Greater Hume Children Services, Holbrook, last week to meet students who will start their schooling journey at Holbrook Public School in 2022. The Year 5s attended with Miss Lavis and Mr Earl, and it was great to see them re-enter our school with such big smiles and positivity. 'Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.' An exciting new addition to our transition program will involve all future students having the opportunity to attend for the first two hours each Wednesday morning (9:30 – 11:30 a.m.) during Term 4 (Weeks 3 – 8). This will be in addition to the regular transition program that we run. We believe this fun, literature and play-based approach will help students develop routines, relationships and learning behaviours in readiness for success in a more formalised schooling environment. If you are interested in what our school offers your child, please get in touch with our office to book a tour and ask any questions you might have.

ST PATRICK'S SCHOOL

Pray There are only 18 total solemnities throughout the Liturgical Year, and interestingly there are seven in May and June alone. Sunday 6th June we celebrated The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and Friday The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ At the Last Supper, Jesus knew that He was going to leave His friends. So he turned the bread into His Body and the wine into His Blood.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus Writers as early as St. Justin (second century) and St. Pope Gregory the Great (seventh century) drew on John 19:34-35 as a metaphor for the divine graces that flow from the heart of the crucified Jesus: "But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs, but one soldier thrust his lance into his side, and immediately blood and water flowed out."

These and the other 16 solemnities are feast days of the highest rank celebrating a mystery of faith. Catholic schools are the vehicles in which this mystery of faith is nurtured.

Live Our Frost Free Friday Milo mission drive continues to be popular, particularly as it has been quite fresh in the mornings. This student led initiative has really brought social justice to the core. In 4 weeks the students have managed to raise just shy of $300. I was particularly humbled when one of the students donated their change saying there are people who need it more than them. This created a flow on effect with others donating their change. One of the greatest gifts we can teach our children is compassion and empathy for others. I am so proud to say the children of St. Patrick's School demonstrate these virtues in spades.

Learn Our classrooms truly are vibrant learning communities. I was honoured to show Prue Horan, Assistant Director CEDWW through the classrooms last week. The animation displayed when the students were explaining to her what they were learning was magical. This articulation of learning by the students is consistent with the TransFORMATIVE Learning system initiative. TransFORMATIVE Learning involves every member of our school and office communities and captures the importance of lifelong learning. The student's ability to articulate in words their learning highlights the authenticity of their learning experiences.

Our Age Champions and ribbon placegetters from the Combined Schools Athletics Carnival with St Joseph's Culcairn.

Congratulations to all those who competed on Wednesday 16 June. In particular to the PP5 relay team; consisting of Isla Forrest, Alana Scholz, Alex Berg and Connor Tyndall, who placed 2nd. Gwendoline Durdin-Paul who placed first in shot put. These 5 students will compete in the Diocesan carnival in Week 2 of Term 3.

We are now taking enrolments for Kinder for 2022. Enrolment packs are available at the front office. By completing an enrolment pack you are guaranteed a place in our Transition to School Program and will receive information regarding those dates as it comes to hand.

May God's blessings be with you all

MEALS & TRANSPORT IN HOME CARE PACKAGES....

Yes, your Home Care Package provider can provide Meals on Wheels and other services as part of your Home Care Package, if this fits into your budget. If there are not enough funds available in your budget, you are still able to purchase Meals on Wheels separately and not associated with your Home Care Package. You may be eligible for meals under Commonwealth Home Support Program.

Your Home Care Package entitles you to choose a meal service that best suits you, under the principle of Consumer Directed Care. You have every right to discuss this with your Home Care Package provider, and they are obliged to ensure that your choice can be catered for, if this fits into your budget. After discussions, your provider should agree to provide Meals on Wheels as part of your Home Care Package, because Meals on Wheels are available in every Local Government area.

There are no free meals. The whole meal cost will come out of your Home Care Package funds. Under Consumer Directed Care your Home Care Package Provider cannot force you to use their preferred supplier. The choice of meal supplier is entirely yours. Many of the cheap or free meals offered will not meet the National Meal Guidelines and are often of poor nutritional value. Be careful not to sign contracts and always remember, if it seems too good a deal it generally is.

The price will vary depending on your menu selections. Meals on Wheels meals are reasonably priced, and the majority meet the National Meal Guidelines which were designed to ensure a healthy eating program for over 65’s. There is no delivery charge to you. Delivery is paid out of your Home Care Package.

You never have to sign a contract with Meals on Wheels. We can provide as many or as few meals as you require.

Remember: We are MORE THAN JUST A MEAL-providing a wellness check, social contact and a nutritious meal. We also offer outings, social groups, and nutrition support for our service users. Our volunteers tell us they enjoy supporting their community and building relationships with other volunteers and clients.

If you are interested in participating in these new projects or would like more information on Meals on Wheels or Social Support, please call our office on 02 6036 3677.

ANGLICAN NEWS

The planning of events for the future are underway with us at the Anglican Church. As we know our local events have been turned upside down due to the Covid pandemic but life goes on. We have decided to cancel the "Open Gardens Day" for now and re-visit this in the new year and see if we can organize this event sometime in 2022.

On a positive note, we are planning to have the "100th Flower Show" in November on Friday the 5th. The Spring blooms will hopefully be at their best along with the summer flowers coming on. The venue will be the Church building and a luncheon will be served in the church hall.

The Wednesday Craft Group are consistently creating goods and chatting at the same time. Last week the Parish Council had a sneak preview of a quilt that is being created which will become the first prize for the Flower Show raffle, it is very colourful.

We are pleased with the service we are providing to the community at our Op-shop. The furniture section appears to have a revolving door somewhere with lounge chairs coming and going continuously. The winter clothing is on the racks and we have an amazing array of children's toys as well. My dad once said that he was fortunate if he had a tin can on a string as a toy when he was a boy, we are spoilt today.

The 9:30am Sunday services have a varied format e.g., the 4th Sunday (June 27) we will have "Café Church" in the hall. It is like the Aldi add, "Good – Different." On the first Sunday of the month, July 4th, we will have a "Prayer and Praise" service in the Church. Woomargama Church is going well with its services on the second Sunday of the month at 11am and the prayer service on the 4th Sunday at 1:30pm. St Paul wrote in his letter to the Hebrews in Chapter 10, Verse 25: "Do not neglect meeting together to encourage each other," (and I add) to thank God for all the good things we have.

Best wishes from the Anglican Church at Holbrook and Woomargama.

LADY GAIL'S TRAVELLERS TALES

Over this last Easter and school holiday period, I had a number of people tell me that they help out or work at Op Shops.

Pointing at a bookcase they ask "Do you sell any of those .. because we don't have space, so we just throw them away" I look horrified at that bookcase because I am desperately short. Sometimes it's the older SciFi or Westerns or the Agatha Christies, but also history and poetry books.

To me it's amazing that they think there is not a place for them. Just this week I heard of a shop that censors their customers reading by throwing away Mills and Boon and the like. Every reader comes with different abilities to read and retain information, just like every sports person has different skill levels. It's not for us to judge. So, if some readers just want a veg read or an escapism read, they should be able to. Another blanket statement I hear is "Young people don't read anymore". That's not true.

Young ones read every day. I get that not everyone is a reader, not everyone likes music or plays sport. Book people are book people and a lot of young book people are trying to get the books they remember seeing on Mum or Dad's, Grandma or Grandpa's shelves. That's a good thing but not if shops are throwing them away because they can't see big enough dollars.

LEST WE FORGET

- ROBERT D. HAWORTH

Private Robert Haworth owned the property "Cambewarra" near Holbrook. He joined the Australian Imperial Force in June 1917 at the age of twenty-three.

Having set sail aboard HMAT Euripides a few months after enlistment, destined for the Western Front, Haworth had to disembark in England having fallen ill with influenza. He was admitted to the Sutton Veny Military Hospital until his recovery.

In April 1918 once Haworth had recuperated from illness, he proceeded from Dover to Calais to join his battalion, the 4th. The 4th Battalion had been raised within a fortnight upon the declaration of war in August 1914. It served at Gallipoli until the evacuation, going on to fight on the Western Front until the end of the war, taking part in operations against the German Army, mainly in the Somme Valley in France and around Ypres in Belgium.

On the 10th July 1918 in the vicinity of Merris in France, Haworth was acting as a runner when returning from delivering a message he was fatally shot by a sniper. A witness claimed Haworth had told him earlier that day that he had a feeling something was going to happen to him.

He was buried where he fell by the men of his company and a cross was erected. Although his grave has not been found, Private Robert Haworth is commemorated at the Villers-Bretonneux Memorial in France.
