Issue 361 1 May 2019

Anzac Day

*I saw a boy marching, with medals on his chest,
He marched alongside diggers, marching six abreast,
He knew it was Anzac Day, he walked along with pride,
And did his best to keep in step with the diggers by his side.*

*And when the march was over the boy looked rather tired.
A digger said, "Whose medals son?" to which the boy replied,,
"They belong to my Dad, but he didn't come back.
He died up in New Guinea, up on the Kokoda Track".*

*The boy looked rather sad, and a tear came to his eye,
But the digger said, "Don't worry son, I'll tell you why,"
He said, "Your old am marched with us today, all the bloomin' way,
All us diggers knew he was here, it's like that on Anzac Day.*

*The boy looked rather puzzled, he didn't understand
But the digger went on talking, and started to wave his hand,
"For this great land we live in, there's a price we have to pay,
To keep Australia free, and fly our flag today."*

*'Yeas we all love fun and merriment in this country where we live,
"But the price was that some soldier his precious life must give,
"For you to go to school, my son, and worship God at will.
"Somebody had to pay the price, so our diggers paid the bill."*

*"Your dad died for us my son for all things good and true.
"And I hope you can understand these words I've said to you".*

*The boy looked up at the digger and after a little while,
His face changed expression, and he said with a beautiful smile,
I know my dad marched here today, this our Anzac Day,
I know he did, I know he did. all the bloom'n way!"*

Mary Reid and her granddaughter, Angel, pay their respects

OPENING HOURS Tues—Fri:11.00-1.00pm 2.00-5.30pm Saturday: 9.30-12.30pm (library services only)

Our school holiday activities were as usual very popular, kicking off with Croc Cards on Wednesday the 17th. 11 children came along and worked with punches and an embossing press to make these cute and eye catching greeting cards and envelopes.

Then, last Wednesday, a group of 15 children participated in making dragon and fairy lamps. Everyone was very happy with their creations. This activity involved covering a jar with glue and tissue paper, sticking a silhouette on the inside of the jar, attaching a small 'candle' light to the underside of the jar lid and then decorating the inside and outside of the jar with twine, leaves, gumnuts, artificial flowers and glitter.

In order to see the full effect of the lamps, children went in to our dark storeroom where they could see how magical their dragon and fairy lamps looked.

Testimonial: I went to the NYSF in 2001 and had my eyes opened to the diverse and intriguing world of science. It showed me that there is much to do in any of the myriad disciplines, or you can forge your own path. That’s why THIS biophysicist joined the Navy, became a meteorologist and oceanographer then a science communicator and then a TV weather Presenter. And I’m not done yet. I found my path; the NYSF showed me that it’s possible.

In March 2017, Nate landed a dream job as an ABC weather presenter. You can catch him in action on the early morning shift. Nate has been a fantastic ambassador for the NYSF, having spoken to this year’s participants, sharing his own valuable career and life advice. The NYSF owes Nate a big thanks for all he has given back to the program in recent times!

ANZAC DAY IN HOLBROOK 2019

ANZAC Day 2019 in Holbrook started at 5.45am with the Dawn Service at the Holbrook Cenotaph. Guest speaker Captain Steven Dalton RAN, gave a speech to a well attended crowd. The Last Post was played on a violin, which was very sombre. The Gunfire Breakfast was then held at the RS Club and was attended by about 120 people.

At 10.45am, local schools, service men & women and descendants of service men & women from all conflicts, marched from Hume St. to the Cenotaph for the 11am service. The Plunkett family again contributed to the pipe & drums for the march. Local school captains Wil Jenkyn (Holbrook Public) and Oscar Preston (St. Patrick's) presented to a well attended service, the poem "ANZAC Cove" and the "Prayer for the future". Captain Steven Dalton gave an ANZAC address - he also attended the 2006 service in Holbrook. The President of Holbrook RSL branch, Mr Jeremy Locke then announced that since ANZAC Day 2018, WW2 veteran Mr Len Condon had passed away on 12th July 2018, aged 96yrs. WW2 veteran Mr Ian Scobie (former RSL President) is currently at The Mercy Hospital in Albury. Also mentioned was long-time Holbrook resident Mr Henry Weitzel, who passed away recently aged 98. He was a member of the German Merchant Marine during WW2.

(Stephen Penfold has recorded the Holbrook ANZAC day march. His video can be found on YouTube by searching "ANZAC Holbrook" for anyone who would like to see it.)

2019 Commander Holbrook Cup Race Meeting Wrap-up

The 2019 Holbrook Races turned out to be a great family day! With perfect weather, the crowd of 1100 watched on as over 90 nominations across 6 races competed.

Fashions on the Field had a great turnout. Dressed to impress, the boys outdid our ladies this year with competitors filling up the stage for the Most Fashionable Man.

A happy and memorable day for all as we got our backsides trackside, even gathering around the big screen as Winx sent off her career in style with another stunning run to claim her 33rd win in a row at Royal Randwick.

Thanks to all our sponsors, town traders, committee and community, without your support and hard work this fantastic community event wouldn't take place. Follow our Holbrook & District Race Club Facebook page to keep updated with all the news and photos.

See you all next year!

RONNIE WORNES MEMORIAL SHIELD

Ryder McKillop has been awarded the 2018 Ronnie Wornes Memorial Shield for Holbrook's "Best Junior Rugby League Player". Ryder along with several other boys play Rugby League for Albury Thunder Juniors. 2018 was his third season of Rugby League, where he played for Albury Thunder Green team, in the in-town competition. He scored eight tries and kicked six goals, however the highlight of his play was his consistent and text book tackling. Ryder was regularly amongst the best players for his side and was awarded his team's most consistent player at the end of the season. With the increase in numbers of Holbrook boys and girls playing Rugby League or League Tag, Albury Thunder has sponsored Monday evening training sessions to be held at 4.30pm at the Holbrook Sporting Complex. Players must be registered before they are eligible to train.

HISTORY QUIZ

Previous Quiz: The 1908 Melbourne Cup had a special significance for the McLaurin family. Why?

Answer: Tulkeroo, owned by the late John McLaurin, came second in the 1908 Melbourne Cup, losing by a half a head.

Who am I? I was born in Wagga Wagga 7 May 1914, the son of a sheep drover. I have well-known relations in Holbrook. I was given a nick-name after the famous Victorian horse trainer James Scobie [1860-1940] between 1929 to 1964 made 17 attempts to win the Melbourne Cup.

Any Day in May is Great to Vaccinate Against Flu

Parents of small children and people in high-risk groups are being urged to set a reminder for 1 May to phone their GP and book a flu jab ahead of winter.

NSW Health's Communicable Diseases Director, Dr Vicky Sheppeard said most GP clinics should receive their Commonwealth flu vaccines by next month.

"Now is a great time to set a reminder in your phone or circle the date in your calendar, particularly if you or your family are in a high-risk group, to ensure you get your flu jab," Dr Sheppeard said.

"There have already been 7,584 recorded flu cases in NSW during the warmer months so the best protection ahead of winter is to be vaccinated to build up resistance."

More than 250,000 flu vaccines have been delivered so far, including over 42,000 to aged care facilities across the state.

"Flu vaccines have already been distributed to aged care facilities but for the wider population, supplies should be with their GP by May 1," Dr Sheppeard said.

So far this year, two strains of influenza A virus are causing most of the infections in NSW, similar to the strains that circulated in 2018.

Dr Sheppeard said free vaccines will again be available through GPs for all children aged from six months to under five years of age, under the NSW Government's $2.6 million program. Based on orders for vaccine in 2019, NSW Health is hopeful more children aged between six months to five years will be vaccinated against flu in 2019.

The NSW Government has invested around $130 million in the 2018-19 Immunisation Program budget, including Commonwealth and state vaccines.

"Free flu vaccines are also available for pregnant women, Aboriginal people, those aged over 65, and anyone with conditions such as asthma, diabetes, and heart disease," Dr Sheppeard said.

People who are not eligible for free vaccines can get vaccines on the private market from their GP or an eligible pharmacist. Influenza vaccines are recommended for children and adults to reduce their risk of flu and spreading it to vulnerable people.

"Last year we had the mildest flu season in five years but as we all remember, more than 650 people died from influenza-related illness in 2017. Thanks to many factors, including the vigilance of the community last year, we avoided repeating the deadly flu season of 2017. We must not be complacent this year."

In addition to booking a flu jab, people are reminded that to help reduce the spread of flu, sneeze into your elbow, wash your hands regularly and stay home if you are sick. NSW Health Media line: (02) 9391 9121 (B/H) or (02) 9962 9890 (A/H)

FOOTBALL Round 3 versus Brock-Burrum:

Holbrook let a golden opportunity slip with a 4-point loss to Brock-Burrum at Burrumbuttock on Saturday. The Brookers looked to have the Saints on toast when leading by 42 points in the second quarter, but couldn't hold off the reigning premiers in a dramatic conclusion. Andrew Dear and Sam Harris both had chances to put Holbrook back in front in the dying moments, but their kicks were off target. It was still a grand effort though, given the quality of the opposition. Andrew Dess (Riv Hotel mug) had a whale of a match up forward, snatching a raft of contested marks and slotting 4 goals. When the game was still in the balance, it was encouraging to see a couple of our young guns perform under pressure. Lachie Holmes seemed to hit a target with every possession, while Cooper Walsh (Players' player) thrived while pitted against the dangerous John -Roy Williams. Jake Way (Otway Bistro) and Randal Taylor showed plenty of fighting spirit in the midfield to give us an early advantage in the centre clearances. Andrew Dear (Zambrero) proved a reliable target in attack, and Matt Sharp and Brock Knights replicated their recent good form. This Saturday the Brookers lock horns with Culcairn at Holbrook.

Reserves: Brock- Burrum 14 18 102 Holbrook 3 2 20
Goals: Tyler Lampe 2, Josh Pieper. Best: Dave Tassell (Riv Hotel mug & Players' player), Tim Walsh (Kezza's Kitchen), Charlie Harbison (Zambrero).

Jindera Multi-Purpose Hall

Council is proposing to develop the Jindera Multi-Purpose Hall to provide Jindera and surrounding residents with a modern public facility suitable for indoor sports and catering for community functions with disabled access throughout. The project is potentially a key future development at the Jindera Recreation Reserve.

Funding for the project (estimated at $3.74M) is yet to be sourced.

Council values feedback and suggestions and has prepared a community engagement guide to inform the community about the proposed project.

The guide and plans of the multi-purpose hall can be viewed at the Jindera Community Hub, or via Council's website greaterhume.nsw.gov.au. A copy of the guide is included in the May issue of Jindera Community Newsletter.

Council welcomes feedback about the proposed project. Residents can comment via the Have Your Say page on Council's website or by completing a feedback form available at Jindera Community Hub.

Comments and feedback will be received until 1 July 2019. For enquiries and further information contact Colin Kane, Director Environment & Planning T: (02) 6036 0100.
