THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL SADDLEHORSE ASSOCIATION

What is ANSA?

We are an organisation of progressive, enthusiastic people who share the common aim of promoting their association for the benefit of fine, versatile saddle horses.

- Provides a Register of saddlehorses through classification
- Promotes competition for ANSA registered and foal recorded horses
- Caters for ALL horses under saddle
- Provides an opportunity for quality saddlehorses to obtain Registration Papers

Additionally, the Annual High point awards in 13 categories such as Hacking, Polocrosse, Showjumping, Dressage, Led Showing, Versatile and Pony Club.

The Registry is an All Breeds Performance Registry. Showing competition is conducted at all levels including the Royal Shows in Brisbane, Toowoomba, Sydney, Bathurst and Canberra.

The ANSA Horse is competed in snaffle bridles with no artificial aids while attire for horse and rider falls into two categories – Classic and Traditional. Exceptions to this rule apply in disciplines such as showjumping, eventing, polocrosse and camp drafting where equipment rules specify otherwise.

How to join

Complete a membership form and email to the Secretary with Payment. Memberships are due each year on 1 January and all owners of ANSA Registered Horses must be financial in order to compete in any ANSA Ring.

How to register

Your horse can be accepted for registration via one of three methods

- Inspected by a Classifier
- Accepted on recognised performances ie: 4 open hacking wins
- Foal recording of ANSA Progeny from two ANSA Parents

Contact the Secretary to find a Classifier in your area or send video for inspection. The inspection is a viewing of the horse working under saddle in each direction in walk, trot and canter. Level of education is not important, but manners and paces are.
