Waiver Example

As organiser of insert name of activity

On insert date

Risk Warning and Waiver of Contractual Duty of Care

Civil Liability Act, 2002

Contract for the supply of insert name of the type of activity being conducted

By participation in the name of the event today I agree to do so at my own risk.

I know that my agreement operates to exclude any liability in negligence for harm that I may suffer.

I have been warned that this recreational activity may cause physical harm to me or to someone under my control or accompanying me, and I confirm that I do not have a condition, medical or physical, that could prevent me from, or be aggravated by, participating in this activity.

Examples of the risks I have been warned about include:

Another way that a waiver can be used is in a letter to the participants when you are inviting them to participate in your event.

The letter may contain other relevant information that they need to be aware of, such as details of the event, insurance and other requirements, and at the same time requires confirmation of their participation by signing the letter or attached containing among other information, the following wording:

Risk Warning - Civil Liability Act 2002

I/we agree to participate in this event at my/our own risk and to indemnify and keep indemnified the insert committees name here against all claims, suits, actions or demands which may be brought in respect of any injury or other loss sustained by me/us or anyone participating in the insert name of the event and agree to exonerate the insert name organising committee name here from all responsibility and from all loss or injury to any person due to alleged liability or otherwise.
