BURRUMBUTTOCK 150th CELEBRATIONS UPDATE CLASSIC CAR SHOW AND OPEN GARDEN A HUGE SUCCESS

Well, what a day it turned out to be!

Beautiful autumn weather, lots of classic polished cars of every description from Jindera, Wagga and beyond lined up within a stunning garden setting.

Car clubs travelled from Jindera, Walla, Wagga, Albury, Wodonga, with individual vehicles from Corowa and Burrumbuttock. Lyle and Justin Burns presented rare Bulldog tractors, which were a focus of interest, and Syd Churcher displayed a collection of antique garden implements.

People sat down with a glass of bubbly or a beer, some delicious Devonshire teas and lunches or a barbecued steak and enjoyed the excellent music. The five piece band, the Hipnotics, was capably led by Phillip Stone, who made a generous effort in bringing all the members together. Crowd estimates were 400 – 500 attendees on the day.

The feedback has all been very positive with many remarking on how relaxed and friendly the whole event was.

A huge thankyou to Elizabeth Newton for coming up with the 150th celebrations fundraising idea and generously opening her garden and property to the public.

Winners of the raffle were:

- Large trailer load of wood - Garrie Filer
- Three hours gardening by Protea Landscaping and Gardening - Marie Logue
- Farmers Inn voucher - Heather Schilg
- Noise cancelling earphones - Dee Klingsporn.

Thanks go to everyone who collected the wood and donated prizes.

Congratulations and thanks to everyone who helped with the enormous job of catering, donating cakes/slices, sandwich fillings, soft drinks etc, and helping prepare, cook and serve food and drinks on the day. It was country-style cooking and hospitality at its best.

Thanks also to those who worked the entry gate and managed the marshalling in the carpark so well. Also, everyone who helped with set up/pack up - so Elizabeth could get her house and garden back! Funds raised totalled over $8,000 which will go towards funding the 150th celebrations weekend, including the 'Fashion Retrospective' which will be held at the Public Hall on Saturday 4th October.

Everyone worked hard at the Bunnings barbeque on Sunday 11th May where $2,380 was raised, due to the locals' donating sausages, onions, bread and soft drinks. Demand was strong, and they had to track down more onions and sausages. Thanks to all those who volunteered their time on Mothers' Day to help on the stall.

The 150th committee is seeking sponsorship for the event from relevant businesses. If you have local contact at any business, please advise Lisa Burns or Merryll Lindner or ask them directly if they would like to sponsor the 150th celebrations. A letter from the committee can be provided.

The subcommittees are all working hard at planning activities for the long weekend in October. The History committee is compiling a history book which will be a mix of the two former Burrumbuttock history books plus more recent history. We would like contributions from local families, and we have sent a letter to many residents in the district asking for copy and photos. Deadline for these is 30th June, so please search out some photos and write your family story for us to include!

The school students will also be involved in an oral history project which will involve interviewing local identities and asking them about their Burrumbuttock memories and experiences.

Ley narrowly wins the leadership, first woman in charge of federal Liberals

Member for Farrer Sussan Ley has been elected to the federal leadership of the Liberal Party, becoming the first woman in the role.

The 63-year-old won the vote 29-25 over fellow regional MP Angus Taylor in a ballot of party MPs in Canberra on Tuesday, May 13.

As well as being the first woman to lead the party, Ms Ley will become the first female Opposition Leader.

Not since former prime minister Malcolm Fraser in 1983 has the Liberal Party had a leader who represents a country electorate.

It caps a 24-year rise for Ms Ley.

When she was first preselected in 2001 by Liberal Party members for Farrer, Ms Ley told The Border Mail she had no ambitions beyond serving the electorate.

"I don't want any other job," Ms Ley said. I only want to be a good local member for Farrer. Ms Ley has been the member for Farrer since 2001 and has served under John Howard, Brendan Nelson, Malcolm Turnbull, Tony Abbott, Scott Morrison and Peter Dutton.

She has won nine elections to the seat, which extends from Jingellic across to the South Australian border along the Murray River and north to the Murrumbidgee Irrigation Area.

The Nigerian-born parliamentarian is the second longest serving member for the seat and is due to beat the record of inaugural member David Fairbairn (1949-1975) if she remains the member until October 2027.

"Records and statistics don't matter to me, I'm here because every election brings new challenges and important work for me to do with my community to help them get ahead," Ms Ley told The Border Mail in response to that mark looming.

In terms of portfolio service, Ms Ley has been a minister for health, sport, aged care and the environment at different times between 2014 and 2022. Sourced from the Internet.

BURRUMBUTTOCK WALKING TRACK COMMUNITY INPUT REQUESTED

Now that the surface is completed, we want your thoughts!

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT the revegetation needed on the track's entry into the township?

Suggestions include:

1. Spotted gum, - tall slender attractive specimen tree, very popular feature tree (squirrel gliders love this species)
2. Cypress- local native type, old fashioned Christmas tree type
3. Local wattles and other shrubs/groundcovers, rambling, staggered plantings

What is your preference for the entrance to Burrumbuttock?

- an avenue of feature trees like option 1 & 2, or
- rambling staggered plantings like 3, similar to what was there before the track was completed.
- Do you like a formal/structured or rambling appearance?

You can view such examples are locally:

1. Spotted gums - over the hill on Burrows Rd, Lavington
2. Cypress pines – along the roadside as you come into Brocklesby on the Burrum Road.
3. Vegetation currently on the east side of Urana Road, coming into Burrumbuttock.

Please email responses by Monday 30th June (next Community Forum meeting) to burrumforum@gmail.com

Exciting News for Burrumbuttock Recreation Ground!

We're thrilled to announce that our cricket club has been successful in receiving a grant through the Local Sport Defibrillator Program (LSDP) 2024/25.

This generous support has enabled us to purchase a much-needed Automated External Defibrillator (AED) for the Burrum Recreation Ground.

We have mounted it to the south side of the building next to the Kitchen entrance in a designated cabinet with a code for security.

This life-saving equipment will enhance the safety of our players, volunteers, and community members during training and match days.

A heartfelt thank you to the NSW Government for supporting grassroots sport and helping us create a safer environment for everyone.

Burrumbuttock Preschool

We have welcomed 6 new children to the Preschool this term and are busy getting to know each other. The children who were already attending are excited to have more friends to play with and are helping our new friends to settle in and get involved in our programs. We have been really enjoying lots of time outside with the weather, but it is great to see the rain. We are blessed with 2 big undercover areas that allow us to enjoy time outside even if it is raining. We are proudly flying our 3 new flags from Sussan Ley's office in our yard. We have the Australian Flag, Aboriginal Flag and Torres Strait Islander flags. We are learning about what the colours and the symbols on the flags mean as we are also creating our own versions of the flags with our handprints. Did you know that the yellow on the Aboriginal Flag represents the Sun which is seen as the giver of life in Aboriginal Culture and the white star on the Torres Strait Islander flag has 5 points to represent the five island groups. We enjoyed putting up our new flag over the 3 days we operate so all children could be involved.

We have a great interest in building and using what is available to us to build with. We have some large/strong cardboard rolls, and they are great for building including when we combine them with our flat wooden blocks. Inside we have been exploring building with small wooden pieces (called biscuits I believe), seeing how we can stack them which involves lots of problem solving as they are not all uniform in size.

We still have some vacancies available for children if you would like to contact us on 0480186371.

Wirraminna News – Celebrating 30 Years

The rain has been so very welcome at Wirraminna. At last, we can stop watering and pay more attention to the winter jobs. To confirm the seasonal change, the winter wattles are brightening up the park. We are also counting our losses as some of the garden plants didn't make it, despite our watering efforts. We are having our annual Nursery visit and lunch this week, this year to Myrtleford, in company with the Albury-Wodonga Australian Native Plant Society. One of the results of the lovely rain is the emergence of large moths, generally seen banging on the windows at night. We have had a lively comparison of observations over the week, and it seems that there may be several species that emerge from their pupal stage during autumn rain. They spend their grub/caterpillar stage underground eating tree roots, or in the trunks of wattle trees. They are among several species often collected as Bardi grubs. This takes up most of their life span. When they are ready to pupate, they make a tunnel nearly up to the soil surface where, while the grub turns into a moth, they stay hidden. The autumn rains alert them that it is time! The pupae move part way out of the ground, and the adult moth emerges. They are attracted to lit windows, so we notice them. There are several species, most commonly the Wattle Goat Moth, and the larger Rain Moth which can have a wingspan of about 20 cm. They mate quickly and the female Rain Moths hold the record of the greatest number of eggs which they scatter over the ground as they fly. The adult moth stage of their life is very short. These moths are part of the wonderful diversity that Wirraminna supports.

An Interesting Conversation

Sitting on a bench in Lavington Square's thoroughfare and watching the passing parade can be somewhat interesting, even marginally entertaining, but ten minutes is more than enough. However, I was sitting there recently while my wife was powdering her nose. I know, women don't do that these days, do they? But you know what I am referring to.

Anyway, I was on the last bench, Eastern end, watching folk coming and going from Big W when a late middle-aged gentleman coming out of the store caught my attention. He was dressed in a short sleeve shirt, shorts, and wore a pair of thongs.

Also, his fingers hooked a hand full of thongs, about half a dozen pair I guessed, all the same style and the same type as the ones he was wearing. They were good quality thongs with woven straps and solid looking soles.

He sat down beside me and plonked the thongs on the bench between us. I looked at the thongs and then at him. I felt compelled to comment, and this is a précis of our conversation.

"They'll keep you going for a couple of years," I remarked, but based on my experience that thongs last at least a year, I thought there was probably another answer.

"No, they're not for me."

Ah! Maybe he is going to hand them out to half a dozen grandkids or donate them to the Salvos, I thought, feeling he would explain.

"There for the fox," he enlightened me, matter of fact and seemingly a normal reason for having so many pairs of thongs. Now he really had my attention, and noticing I seemed amused, he continued.

"If I ever walk into the house and leave my thongs outside and forget to bring them in, the fox chews them overnight. He never misses. Next morning, the straps are chewed through, and the heels are knawed."

"Why don't you shoot the fox?" "We've got lots of rabbits, and the fox helps control them."

I thought his logic was a little askew since if he spent the thong money on rabbit poison, he could then shoot the fox, and both problems would be gone. But no, he obviously had an affinity with the fox and enjoyed their relationship. And why not! They are attractive, sleek animals, highly intelligent, and very crafty, but unfortunately, they are pests as well.

"Where do you live. "Just out of Holbrook."

I was about to ask him if I could take his photo with the thongs as I thought he would agree, but his wife suddenly arrived with her arms full of goods, and he stood up to help her, so the moment passed. Pity. Colin Wiltshire

Chess Teams Competition

On Wednesday 14th May, I had the pleasure of attending the Primary Schools Chess Competition at Thurgoona Public School with twelve students from Waratah.

We entered three teams in the Rookies class; Rookies A, B and C. Each team member played seven games of chess with opponents from multiple schools including Scots, Holbrook, Table Top and Thurgoona.

The concentration during game time was evident, as there were one hundred children in the hall and virtual silence. Well done to all competitors for their sterling effort.

Netball Schools Cup at Albury

Tierre and Lara represented the WSS at the Albury Netball Schools Cup on the 12th May.

The WSS team were undefeated in their pool for the day. From this, they made it to the final against Deniliquin and this was the only game they lost for the day. The girls stated that everyone showed great sportsmanship.

Tierre and Lara reported that they had a lot of fun and had a great day! Well done, Tierre and Lara!

Netball schools Cup at Albury

Tierre, Lara and Lucy B represented the WSS at the Netball Knockout tournament at Howlong on the 20th May.

Brock-Burum Saints Football Club

Football action moved to the Brocklesby Recreation ground for our round 7 games against Howlong. The ground was in amazing condition thanks to some hard work from our loyal Brock volunteers. The new netball courts hosted their first games also and a great crowd was on hand to watch all the games and bask in the glory of some much-needed rain that finally fell.

It is amazing to think that we are approaching the halfway mark of the season, time really does fly when you are having fun! Fun has been a major emphasis of the club this year, both on the ground and off and it is great to see so many smiling faces each Saturday.

We hosted the Nelson Twins after last week's game, and they entertained a crowd of over 100 people for a few hours at our comedy night. It was a successful night and many laughs were had! Our next major function is after our game against Jindera on June 21. It is our annual ball at the SS and A Club. This year Stevie Bowen has been booked in to rock the crowd all night long. Please watch the club's social media pages for more information or give me a call. We invite all community members to come and celebrate with us.

We have a tough month of footy ahead with the next two rounds against the league's top dogs in Holbrook and Osborne. It is a challenge all our boys are looking forward to and as they have shown to this point of the season they are up to the challenge, it will surely be a hotly contested match-up!

Cheers Tim Doherty, Brock Burum Saints Football President

Netball Club

Hi Saints! As per usual it has been a busy few weeks! Let us get into it!

The last few rounds have been a bit of a mixed bag in terms of success in the juniors as well as the seniors.

Our U11s have won their last 7 games and are sitting top of the ladder! With 2nd placed Osborne coming up in the next few weeks, that will surely be hotly contested match up!

Our U13s have had a few tough games, with their games against Billabong and Howlong not going their way unfortunately. Hopefully, they can bounce back against Holbrook this week! The U13s are currently sitting 5th.

Our U15s are still sitting pretty in 3rd place on the ladder. They have had some tight games, with Lockhart gaining the victory in the match up with them. The resilience this team shows however is astounding, as they've bounced back from that loss, to win all of their matches since.

Our U17s had a rough go of it in the rounds of 3 and 4, but they have shown their metal, with a win and a draw in their last two. The standard of the 17s competition this year is unbelievable, with most of the girls in other teams playing seniors as well. They are currently sitting 5th.

Our C Reserve side have a couple of successful matches in the last few weeks against some very tough opposition. They got the job done against Lockhart, CDHBU and Billabong, but went down against RWW and Howlong. Our girls are sitting 4th on the ladder.

Our C Grade have had a great few matches where they've shown grit and determination. They were 6 from 6 wins, but unfortunately Howlong got away from them, and we were dealt the loss. Cannot wait to play them again in finals. C Grade are sitting 2nd on the ladder.

B Grade were in a very similar situation to C Grade. They had the dream run up until round 7, where Howlong beat them in a very tough match. B grade has been playing exceptionally well, considering they have had maybe 7 players in their team most games, with illness and injury hitting them hard. B Grade are sitting 2nd on the ladder.

A Grade have hit the tough part of their draw, with some very tough games being played. They have had some good wins against Lockhart and CDHBU, but went down against, Billabong, RWW and Howlong. They are sitting 6th on the ladder.

To finish on an exciting note, we'd like to congratulate Tamara Louwrier on the safe arrival of her baby girl, Ava Gardner. We're finding little Ava a Net Set Go dress as we speak! Congrats Tamara and Zak!

That's about it from me!

Go Saints!
