Corporate bowls was a cracker

Bruce Whitlock has done an amazing job once again getting all the local business houses to enter teams into our annual corporate bowls nights. These nights ran on Wednesdays at the Henty Bowling Club for six weeks. It was a huge success and if the club can sign up a couple of young or older bowlers out of these nights it is even better. There were a lot of people with a lot of talent among the teams.

The winners of the event were Team Crackers, consisting of Cam D'Amelio and his two sons Lachlan and Zac. This year the club had 14 teams which was the most for a few years. It was great to have a few new teams especially The Next Step team consisting of some of the local kids. Harlan Candy, Harry Janetzki, Alex Biti and Tim Spencer were definitely the stars of the show.

The club's Triples Tournament is a very prestigious event that attracts some of the best bowlers in the region. They travelled from Canberra, Yarrawonga, Corowa, Young, Temora, Wagga and Albury on March 12-13 to play.

The weather was perfect, the greens and surrounds were beautiful and all bowlers thoroughly enjoyed their two days in Henty. The bowling club is lucky to have such wonderful volunteers who go above and beyond to make everything perfect for our tournament.

Bruce Diffey and Kim Maher need an extra special mention on the amount of work they do on the greens, which are the best in the district. The ladies do an amazing job feeding the bowlers - its always delicious. A special thank you to Trudie at the B&B who looked after the out-of-town bowlers. They all spoke very highly of how well Trudie and her children looked after them.

The winners of the tournament were - the tournament organiser, Glenn "Chocco" Harrison, Peter Forck and Mick Broughan. It's been awhile since we have had a local team win this tournament so it was great to see and very well deserved. These three gentlemen put in a lot of work also to make this tournament such a success.

Men's shed focuses on dementia

The Henty Men's Shed eased back into work this summer, organising a local seminar on dementia awareness at the Community Club late in February. The presentation by Dementia Australia officers drew people from as far as Howlong, Wodonga, Corowa, Culcairn, Yerong Creek, along with those from Henty.

Members from the shed had been involved since late last year in planning a range of seminars through North-East Victoria and the Riverina in New South Wales, to assist communities to become more aware of the progress of dementia and its early detection.

In a physical way the folk at the shed have been restoring items for groups and individuals in the community. The Henty Preschool had purchased another set of its large wooden building blocks and asked the shed members to paint them.

Sometime ago the shed members sanded back a similar set of blocks and repainted them for the preschool, which on acquiring an additional set, asked the shed members to paint the new blocks to help them to last as long as the first set.

A large doll's house, a large folding mirror and child's garden seat were among the latest batch of items for restoration.

The shed members are gearing up for the autumn plantings in the garden as the summer crops are coming to an end.

The shed has hosted meetings of the Henty Culcairn Grants Committee, the Presbyterian Church men's breakfast and the annual meeting of the Sweetwater Community Association.

Busy start at St Paul's

The start of the St Paul's Lutheran Primary School year has been full of activity, with lots of opportunities for learning, for sport and for friendship.

All classes are busy with Positive Behaviour for Learning (PBL) projects. K and Year 1 are looking at the question: living things – what do they need to survive? They have planted seeds and will watch how they grow under different conditions. This will be a great opportunity for writing, measuring and other learning opportunities. They will also be conducting other experiments to work out how plants get water.

Years 2 and 3 were given their driving question for this terms PBL project... How can we, as historians, investigate stories of our school's past? As part of their project, students will be creating a map of the school that will also show stories from the past. Their project will include an artwork of a historical site at school as well as an interview from someone who has been a past student, staff member, family or has a community connection to our school. Don't be surprised if you are called on for an interview.

The focus for PBL this term in the 4-5-6 class is Geography with the class aiming to solve the problem, 'How can we as investigators, teach others about how environments are changed and shaped by humans?' They will be researching their chosen environment: describing its diverse features and characteristics and explaining the interactions and connections between people, places and environments. Students will showcase their research and approach to solving the problem in the form of a PowerPoint presentation, speech, news report, documentary, newspaper article or skit.

Year 2, 3 and 4 had a two-day camp at Harrierville where they participated in team building activities and challenges. Activities, such as kayaking, low ropes, archery and circus skills were run by students from Victory Lutheran College, Wodonga. Camp offers students opportunities to be challenged and encouraged while participating in activities they may never do otherwise.

Students also practice their independence, confidence and social interaction skills.

In April the school will have its 2024 open day. There will be two opportunities to meet the principal, ask questions and have a tour around the school. Sessions will be at 10am and 6pm. The school is taking enrolments for 2024 and 2025 for Kindergarten to Year 6. It believes in the transformative power of learning to ignite passion and purpose in students. The goal is to inspire young people to be excited about learning by developing their curious minds and guiding them along the path of powerful learning. Come experience the warm learning environment at St Paul's. All are welcome.

Sharna achieves nursing goal

Next time you are feeling life is a bit hectic and out of control, turn to Henty's Sharna Maloney for inspiration.

In the past five years, she has welcomed her fifth child (Harry – now two), built a new house, worked at the Henty Multipurpose Service and studied nursing full and part-time and participated in workplace placement as part of her degree.

But it is now a time for celebration as Sharna is Henty's newest registered nurse having graduated from Charles Sturt University (CSU) with a Bachelor of Nursing.

Sharna's earlier career history involved hospitality, aged care and a short stint studying animal science, but it was a conversation with Henty-based academic Dr Carolyn Woodley which set her in a new direction.

"When I was at high school I was keen on nursing, but I didn't enjoy a job I had in aged care and it turned me off. Carolyn said I could handle university, that nursing could be a good career and she would help me with learning how to do the assessments and what uni was all about," Sharna said.

After enrolling in online studies with CSU, Sharna then took a casual assistant in nursing job at Henty MPS.

"This helped a lot because whenever I was trying to make sense of things at uni, I would bring it into work and Katie (MPS manager Katie Fifield) and the other staff would help me," she said.

While having to navigate childcare and getting older children to different schools (Sharna and her shearer husband Damien's five children are aged from 20 to 2), Sharna intends to work in general nursing at Henty MPS for the next few years.

"I'm already thinking about what further study I could do. I'm interested in early childhood health or health service management," she said.

For others interested in studying for a career in nursing, Sharna has these tips:

- Research course providers to find one which fully meets your needs.
- Working in healthcare while studying gives you a head start and reduces the risk of finding out nursing is not for you once you've graduated.
- Ask for help with managing the load and understanding the uni work.
- Allow enough time in your schedule for study.
- 'Just go for it'. You simply have to jump in and have a go.

"I wanted to be a role model for my children, particularly my daughters, to see that their mum went and did something later in life and she made it," Sharna said.

Henty Pre-School is “top of the class”

Henty has always known it has one of the best pre-schools around, but now the rest of the world will know.

In late 2023, for the first time ever Henty Pre-School (a community owned pre-school run by the Henty Early Childhood Association Inc.) was rated as Exceeding National Quality Standard (NQS) in the National Quality Framework. Only a small percentage of Australian pre-schools achieve this.

To reach Exceeding NQS, the pre-school had to go above and beyond the requirements of the NQS in at least four of the seven quality areas.

Henty Pre-School director Abi Meyer said feedback from the assessors covered a range of areas considered high quality, but the high standard, creative outdoor and indoor play spaces were particularly highlighted.

“Feedback was that our outdoor and indoor spaces were professionally designed and effectively organised to consistently engage children in quality experiences using built and natural environments,” Abi said.

“The report highlighted the service’s collaboration with family and community partners to foster an inclusive, welcoming and flexible play-based learning environment.”

Staff at Henty Pre-School were also praised for their flexibility and resourcefulness in engaging with children as individuals with varied needs.

“All educators consistently make curriculum decisions, including organisation of daily routines, that maximise learning and development outcomes for every child in relation to their identity, connection with community, wellbeing, confidence as learners and effective communicators,” the report stated.

Abi said the achievement was a reflection of the commitment of staff and families to providing quality early education in a rural setting.

“Achieving this status goes to show small country pre-schools provide services equally as good, if not better as those in large centres and I think, in our case, one of our greatest assets is our community support for offering this service,” she said.

The Pre-School operates four days each week with places for up to 41 children.

The Henty preschool is managed by a committee of parents and community members who lead the service through their governance role and currently includes Kelly Male, Tamara Dale, Alyce Terlich, Breanna Bisset, Kristel White and Jasmin Everitt. The committee employs a professional team of 12 education and administration staff including support staff Bernard Schrader and Marie Katalinic.

Let’s meet some of the educational and administration staff here. Please note that photos of staff are at the end of their profile details.

1. Peta Campbell:

When Peta goes to her children’s events at Billabong High School she sees lots of familiar faces – just on much bigger bodies and with their adult teeth. Having worked in early childhood at Holbrook, Culcairn and now Henty regularly sees lots of young adults she has known since their first day in day care or early childhood education. Her entry into early childhood education was actually at Billabong High School, where she gained Certificate II in Early Childhood Education and Care studies while still a student.

For the past three years, the Culcairn-based Peta has worked at Henty Pre-School.

“It takes a village to raise a child and Henty Pre-School is a good village. It connects families with the support and resources they need to help raise children,” she said.

2. Krystal Morey:

If Krystal looks familiar to you it’s because she might have helped you in another Henty service. Since leaving school, Krystal has worked at the service station, as a cleaner and in aged care, but it was an advertisement from Henty Pre-School which gave her career direction.

at the pre-school in 2021, she has gained her Certificate III in Early Childhood Education, and is working towards finishing her diploma and has been selected for a scholarship to undertake an early childhood teaching degree at Charles Sturt University.

“The best part about the job is building relationships with children with higher needs. Consistency is the best way to do this – whether I see them here at pre-school or down the street I always act the same with them,” she said.

“And I love reading stories with the children.”

hard to get early childhood services in town – first operating out of Henty Public School and then at today’s site. As her four children grew up, Carol took up Family Day Care and during a decade of offering care from her Henty home she gained her Certificate III in Early Childhood Education.

Nine years ago she joined the Pre-School and has since completed a Diploma of Early Childhood Education, which Carol says she couldn’t have done without the support of her fellow staff.

A keen potter and crafter, Carol loves doing art and craft with the children and said making creations with old boxes and egg cartons remains a hit with the kids.

4. Jenni Haines:

Henty-based Jenni’s journey to a role as an educator at Henty Pre-School started when her three children started at pre-school. She was president of the pre-school committee and after realising she loved being at the pre-school, ended up taking on a job and completing her Certificate III in Early Childhood Education. She is now midway through her diploma.

Born in Sydney and raised at Brocklesby (her father was a teacher at Billabong), Jenni’s pre-children career involved working in customer service for Telstra for 10 years.

“The best part of this job is when a kid is having a tough day and you just do one little thing with them and they break out in a huge smile. Also how proud they are when they achieve something they have been challenged with,” she said.

“And I do love painting. It is good and messy fun”.

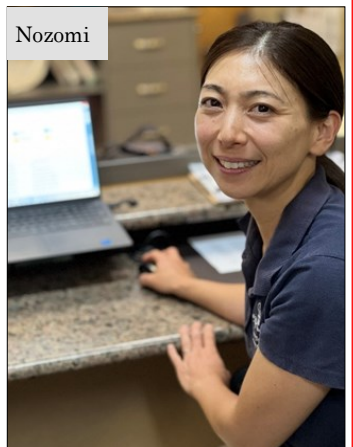

Jenni

5. Nozomi Iba:

An initial career as an airline stewardess prepared Nozomi Iba for work in early childhood education. She is cool, calm and collected under pressure and vomit is no big deal to her. Henty resident and mother of two, Nozomi left Japan for Australia 13 years ago and while living at Gerogery, Jindera and Walla Walla, retrained at TAFE in business administration and worked as a school support officer.

After moving to Henty, her eldest child started at Henty Pre-School and she took on an administration traineeship at the pre-school in 2020.

“The great thing about working here is that while it is still office work it is in a great setting with all the children around,” she said.

6. Stephanie Olive:

Currently on maternity leave, Stephanie has had a diverse career in early childhood education.

Her interest started in high school when she completed her Certificate III and spent much of her early career in the Bathurst region working at a Multi-functional Aboriginal Children's Service (during which time she completed her Diploma) and in long day care and vacation care. When moving to the area five years ago she moved into community pre-schools and three years ago started at Henty.

A year ago she made Henty her home and said she loves being active with the children within the community.

Stephanie

"I have a special interest in additional needs and I've dedicated a lot of my career to furthering my skills to ensure each child's success within the world," she said.

7. Abi Meyer

There are few spare hours in the day for Henty Pre-School director Abi Meyer. If she is not managing the pre-school and supporting a smooth entry to education for Henty's three to five-year-olds, she is furthering her lifelong love of learning by studying for her Masters degree.

Abi started at the pre-school in 2002 and she always says she has never had to change jobs for a new career challenge – the opportunities to learn and grow just keep coming to her (think COVID 19).

With a Bachelor of Education and post-graduate studies in inclusive education, Abi is proud of the team at Henty Pre-School, many of whom had their first connection at the service through their children.

"In my role I have come to understand the privilege of working with a diverse range of people, employing and building skills in community members and connecting with the wider community," she said.

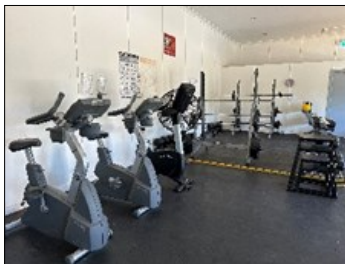

"We are a business and education service owned and operated by the community and everyone should feel proud of that."

Gym aids surgery recovery

Henty Community Gym has become a very active centre at 9am on Tuesday and Friday mornings when the seniors arrive to exercise. With the purchase of extra equipment (walker, rower and bike) there is plenty for everyone to use.

Henty Local Health Advisory Committee has enabled the purchase of rehabilitation equipment for the use of the public following major knee, hip and shoulder surgery, this equipment is well utilised.

Sensational finish for tennis team

Once again Henty Park has proven itself to be the dominant force in the Hume Country Tennis Association with an almost complete whitewash in the grand final held at Jindera on Saturday, March 16. Henty made every section into the grand final with four out of the six teams winning the coveted award of premiers for the 2023/24 season. It is a feat that has never been achieved before within the club.

Sections 3B and Section 4 came extremely close to victory with only a three and five games loss respectively. Sections 1, 2 and 6 repeated their triumph after winning the premiership last season. Section 5 completed the white-wash having their first win in many years. Not only did Henty Park celebrate the day on the court but also with two prestigious awards being given at the presentation night that followed.

Megan Eulenstein was awarded club life member for her dominance in tennis for virtually 40 years. Megan has been Henty's consistently best female player the club has ever produced.

Ben Hooper serves as vice president of the club and took out the 2024 Club Person of the Year Award. Ben's passion for the game and eagerness to see the sport grow further earned him this award.

Tennis Club president John Janetzki says the huge success of the club has come from passion and commitment for the sport. The Henty Park Tennis Committee, the players, parents and the local community in general all play a vital part in where the club has made it. It's time to celebrate and start planning for next season.

Students dive into school year

Henty Public School has kicked off the year with 77 fabulous students. The school welcomed Mrs Kim Webb as relieving principal and Keegan Ross as the Year 5 teacher and look forward to a wonderful first term.

Classes have engaged in multi facets of learning and are enjoying the garden and Lunch and Learn every Wednesday with many delicious dishes being cooked already. Students have been working hard in the garden removing spent summer vegetables, mulching and have started planting winter vegetables, seedlings and seeds to be able to use in the kitchen cooking.

There was success at the Henty Show with some of the garden produce and flowers. The P&C did a wonderful job catering for the show staff and visitors over the day. The school thanks all parents/carers and community members who donated slices/cakes/salads or their time it was greatly appreciated.

The swimming carnival was held during the second week of term and was very successful. A big thanks to the parents and community who helped out with timing on the day and the Henty Swimming Club for loaning their equipment and running the canteen on the day.

HPS was represented by 14 students at the Southern Riverina Swimming carnival held in Lavington with multiple placings. After Stirling winning age champion under 10, he headed to Leeton for the Riverina Swimming Championships where he came first in his heat and 8th overall. A fantastic effort for all swimmers.

In AFL, Mea, Memphis, Rex, Hayden, Jackson and Vinnie attended the Southern Riverina PSSA AFL Trials they had a great day with Memphis, Rex and Jackson qualifying for the next level of selection to be run later in the month.

In tennis, Verity, Max, Vinnie and Stirling attended the Southern Riverina PSSA Tennis Trials in Albury with Verity qualifying for the next round of selection. Congratulations to all players and good luck Verity.

In debating, eight students attended an entertaining and exhausting debating workshop at Sturt Public School during the term with Mrs Malmo and Suzie. By the end of the day, each student was able to write an argument and provide a rebuttal. The school looks forward to watching them use their newly acquired skills in formal debates next term.

Year 5/6 have kick started their fundraising for camp at the end of the year selling Zooper Doopers and a successful car wash. Thank you to all community members and parents for your support. Their next fundraiser is an Easter egg guessing competition.

HPS spent the morning participating in Clean Up Australia Day. Students put on their gloves and scoured the surrounding grounds of the school for rubbish. The place looked a lot more fresher after the clean-up and students were able to proudly say they cleaned up Australia.

The rest of this term is full of exciting activities - Harmony Day, Ride to School Day, Easter Egg Hunt, photo day, Cross Country and Paul Kelly Cup and we look forward to the school break to recharge and refresh for Term 2.

Police warn of scams

Probus met at Culcairn on February 14. Being Valentine's Day, there was a lovely thought of a chocolate and a paper heart with a nice verse for everyone. There were lots of visitors on the day. They came from Culcairn, Henty and Canada too.

The club congratulated Beryl and Neil Meyer who are celebrating a special wedding anniversary and Lois and Bruno Biti who are celebrating 62 years of marriage. New members Beris and Libby and also Jill and Colin were welcomed.

Pam Schulz was the five-minute speaker. Her father was a grain carter. Pam told of going to school at Gerogery and then on to Albury High School. There was a lot of bike riding to get to the Gerogery railway station and then a lot of walking from Albury station to the high school. Pam worked in the office at the A H Mackie store at Culcairn and remembered the money being sent in a container along a wire to the office.

Club president Yvonne thanked Pam for sharing her memories and presented her with a Probus pen as a token of appreciation.

After morning tea, Neil introduced the speaker, Senior-Constable Daniel Davila from Henty, assisted by Senior-Constable Ryan Freeman from Culcairn. Both are members of NSW police force. They spoke about scams and fraud, and it was made clear that we can help disrupt such bad behaviour by locking our homes, front and back doors and locking our cars and mail boxes, not leaving passwords about on slips of paper and to check bank statements for irregularities.

If you think you have been scammed, contact Police and your bank. This tricky behaviour affects many people each year and we can be cautious in not connecting to links or trusting people arriving at your door unannounced and offering to repair driveways or roofs.

There were questions and answers, after a most impressive slide show. Everyone was made aware that this can happen to anyone. There were brochures available for all to read the message.

Richard Fifield presented a Probus pen to the officers as a thank you in recognition of much effort made to protect us from identity theft.

Probus, along with friends, have been making beanies for Sydney Seafarers' Mission for about 12 months with about 60 per post pack. So now there is a beanie competition in full swing. Everyone in the community can enter an adult sized beanie. Sections are: 1. Just a beanie; 2. Colourful; 3. Novelty; and, 4. Beside the Sea.

There are entries promised from all states except Western Australia and Probus hope for them to knit too. Yvonne spoke to Macca on ABC Radio and lots of people were listening. All beanies are to be lodged with Dales electrical store by May 25 for display at the Henty Creative Gallery. Opening night is Tuesday, June 4 at 6pm for nibbles and showing.

All beanies to be donated to the Sydney Seafarers' Mission, and there will be prizes so you need to tag beanies with name of maker and

The March meeting is to be at Walla Walla on Wednesday, March 13, at 9.30am for a 10am start in the Zion Lutheran Church Hall. The annual general meeting and the annual members subscription of $30 is due to be paid. The planned speaker is a woman speech therapist with a choir. Lunch is to be picnic style supplied from a Walla Walla business.

Yvonne's thought for the day. "Love is a necessity, not a luxury." Probus sends kind thoughts to those dealing with illness and those in mourning.

Probus holds AGM

Probus met at the Zion Lutheran Hall at Walla Walla on March 13 for the annual general meeting. Club president Yvonne welcomed members who sang the national anthem accompanied by Herb on violin. Robyn Long, a new member, was welcomed to the meeting.

Special anniversaries were Gary and Jeannie Kenney 55 years, Lila and Haydon 67 years, Diane and John 62 years and Ron and Shirley six years. We congratulate them all.

Jeannie Kenney was the five-minute speaker and she spoke about years of being a marching girl club member, and wore a bib weighted down with badges. It was an amazing story of moving people around the countryside in a furniture van so they could compete at towns across Victoria and march at the MCG at football grand finals, the Royal Show and the Moomba parade.

Yvonne thanked Jeannie for sharing her memories and presented her with a Probus pen as a memento.

At the AGM, Gary Kenney declared all positions vacant. He then announced the new office bearers for the coming year:

- President - Warren Berkeley
- Vice President - Yvonne Booth
- Secretary - Beryl Meyer
- Assistant Secretary - Helen Squires
- Treasurer - Fran Fifield
- Program Director - Margaret Pumpa
- Historian - Julie Parker
- Travel and Tour Guide and Public Officer - Allison Schuster
- Newsletter - Kevin Fogarty
- Publicity Person - Helen Squires
- Welfare Person - Julie Parker

There is a vacancy for a Membership Officer.

The club thanks Heather who has been treasurer for many years and Neil Parker who has been our program director finding the amazing speakers. Thank you too, to Yvonne Booth who had been President for two years. A good job, beautifully done by all.

The speakers for the day were Marian Viles and Libby Clarke who in their roles as speech therapists have formed a choir called Border Sonic. The members of the choir are recovering from stroke and other neurological situations like Parkinson's disease. The choir gives people an opportunity to participate and to improve their speech. Singing is good for the brain and good for breathing and posture.

The choir sang beautifully for the meetings and club members were invited to join them and their musical instruments - Mary Hunt on violin and others on drum, ukulele and mandolin.

Ian Lieschke thanked the guests and presented pens to Libby and Marian and token gifts were given to singers and their carers.

Herb has made a new musical instrument to take to his caring visits at aged care and hospitals.

The club thanks the Mill shop at Walla Walla for preparing the picnic lunches and thank you too, to Monica who made sure members had clean toilets and hot water for cuppas. The work is much appreciated.

The next meeting of Probus is to be at Henty, second Wednesday of April, 9.30am for a 10am start, at the Community Club, possibly a tour of the Henty Primary School. Visitors are welcome.
