

WIDESPREAD DROUGHT ACROSS NSW: REGIONAL LEADERS DEMAND PREMIER'S ATTENTION

As drought conditions intensify across Southern New South Wales, regional leaders from Greater Hume Council and Snowy Valleys Council are escalating calls for urgent drought policy reform — and are seeking a direct meeting with NSW Premier Chris Minns without delay.

Mayors Lea Parker and Julia Ham recently met with Hon. David Littleproud MP to raise the alarm over the devastating impact of two failed springs and a looming bob-tail season. Today, they met with Hon. Julie Collins MP, Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, to continue building momentum for national drought recognition and reform. They are now urging both NSW and Federal Governments to formally recognise drought as a natural disaster, unlocking emergency support and recovery measures.

"This is not just a dry spell — it's a widespread crisis," said Mayor Lea Parker. "Our farmers are exhausted, financially strained, and emotionally broken. We need Premier Minns to hear directly from the communities bearing the brunt."

Regional leaders are calling for:

- Formal disaster recognition for drought, alongside floods and bushfires
- Debt relief through RIC loans to enable reinvestment
- Freight and fodder subsidies to ease immediate costs
- Tax incentives for preparedness and long-term resilience

During the 2018–2019 drought, the Regional Investment Corporation (RIC) delivered over $3.26 billion in concessional loans to more than 3,000 farm and small businesses — helping producers manage cash flow, refinance debt, and survive prolonged dry conditions. Remarkably, the program cost the government just $1.655 million. "RIC loans don't just provide financial relief — they restore confidence," said Mayor Parker. "They give farmers the breathing room to plan beyond the drought and invest in their future. They also support small businesses that rely on our rural ratepayers."

While the recent announcement of $40million in drought resilience funding was welcomed, local leaders say it falls short. "Our farmers don't need resilience training — they've been resilient for 2½ years," said Mayor Parker. "They don't want handouts either. What they want is the confidence to reinvest in their businesses and to know that their government values their industry."

The mayors also voiced concern over the Drought Hub's model, which has failed to deliver practical support to southern NSW communities. Funding has been concentrated in research and administration, while farmers continue to struggle.

With further meetings scheduled with Hon. Sussan Ley MP and Hon. Justin Clancy MP, regional leaders are building bipartisan momentum — but stress that state-level leadership is essential. "We're still hoping to get a seat at the table with Premier Minns," said Mayor Parker. "Our communities deserve to be heard — and helped."

APPLICATIONS FOR PRIDE OF WORKMANSHIP AWARDS

Encouraging the theme, "A job well done", your Rotary Club is sponsoring Pride of Workmanship awards for organisations and businesses in our community. This award embraces all aspects of work performances and ethics including initiative, sense of responsibility, safety and efficiency at all working levels in the community. It's not a competition, and it's expected one awardee will be selected from each organization. "This award provides a chance to recognise staff who have given great service to your organization and its clients," Rotarian Rick Bull said. "It recognises a member or employee whose work performance and workmanship are consistently of an overall high standard."

Nomination forms can be picked up from Jenny Kane (0428 433 110) and Rick Bull (0407 401 343) and close on 1st November '25. Participants and sponsors will be invited to attend a presentation dinner with Rotarians at the Holbrook Returned Services Club on Thursday 20th November, and a special public presentation will be made at the Lions Holbrook Australia Day ceremony in January '26

MAINLY MUSIC HOLBROOK

Are you the parent or caregiver of a child aged 0-5? Would you like to meet other parents / caregivers of similar aged children and have some fun singing and dancing with your child?

Mainly Music provides a time and a place where you and your child can find delight in shared experiences through music, movement and play.

Our 30 minute music session is structured, fun and interactive. This is followed by morning tea for the children (provided) then a time free play where your child can socialise and connect.

HOLBROOK LANDCARE

Monitoring Orchids: A few of the Woomargama National Park Volunteers assisted with monitoring the planted threatened Crimson Spider Orchid (Caladenia concolor) in the National Park, as part of the NSW Saving Our Species – threatened orchid translocation program. We were so pleased to see many of the plants were flowering. We had a lovely morning tea at the new Yamba View - Wambariga Lookout, such a stunning view! Some of the wildflowers out at the moment include; pink finger orchids, grey guinea flowers, yam daisies, urn heath, early nancy, handsome flat pea, happy wanderer.

Don't forget to register for the BioBlitz events coming up soon:

Friday 24th Oct: 7 - 9pm Night Walk at Ian Geddes Bush Reserve, spotlighting & moth survey. BBQ dinner.

Saturday 25th Oct: 9.00 - 11am Bird Walk (possibly with BirdLife) & nest box monitoring and general survey at Woomargama Common Night: Camping at Samuel Bollard camping ground (not an HLN event, but whoever wants to come along) and having a night walk.

Sunday 26th Oct: 10.00am - 12.00pm Woomargama National Park Wildflower Walk with Woomargama NP Volunteers around Danny's Loop.

Tracking the Superb Parrots: Maggie Watson is working with a team from ANU (led by Dr Dejan Stojanovic) to track the movements of Superb Parrots using GPS tags. This will provide important information on where birds are moving in the breeding season, after the breeding season, and start to explore any links between parent foraging habitat and nest outcomes. They will also be exploring some population level work including mapping population genetics and movement patterns in an attempt to figure out how the species moves around the landscape. As part of this work, the team is looking for records of nesting Superb Parrots in the Albury/Howlong area. All scientific permits & ethics approvals are in place for both Victoria and NSW. If you have occurrence records of Superb Parrots in the region, and any information about the location of active nests, contact Maggie directly (maggie.watson@nhm.ac.uk).

THANK YOU

Dear community of Holbrook,
As you may be aware by now I am no longer working with Vecare Health.
All is well, I have just decided it's time to make some changes.
Unfortunately there is a lot of you that I didn't have the opportunity to say goodbye too.
It was truly a privilege to get to know you not only as a patient of the clinic but also you as a person and your families.
The kindness and support from you all has left a lasting impression on me that I will always reflect on fondly.
With warm regards,
Nurse Lauren.

PROBUS NEWS

Our numbers are still low but it was great to see Wendy and Alan Buchanan back. Best wishes to Joy Quick and Tyson Jones on our sick list. Our guest speaker today was Mrs Jocelyn Brown from Corryong Probus. Jocelyn told us about her fascinating childhood which was mainly spent on one of the river boats on the Murray where her father was a professional fisherman. Jocelyn had an array of great photos from that era, around the 30's. Life certainly was hard in those days! Thank you Jocelyn.

Thank you also to Margaret & Cathryn Cottrell who attended Henty Culcairn Probus' 30th Birthday celebration as neither President Cathy nor I could.

At our October meeting we will need to know who will be attending our Christmas lunch on 25th November at the RS Club.

Next meeting Tuesday 28th October 11:00am RS Club. Everyone welcome.

Exploring, Learning, and Growing: Local Children Thrive in Out of School Hours and Vacation Care Programs

Children across the community are embracing a season of discovery through the Out of School Hours and Vacation Care programs, which have been filled with hands-on learning, local adventures, and creative experiences. The program continues to provide a safe, engaging environment where children can explore new interests, connect with their peers, and learn about their community.

This term's activities have taken children beyond the classroom and into the heart of the local area. Visits to the Woolpack Inn Museum and the Submarine Museum offered fascinating insights into local and maritime history, sparking curiosity about the past and how it shapes the present. At the local library, children participated in storytelling sessions and craft workshops, fostering a love for reading and imagination.

Outdoor experiences have also been a highlight. Supervised sessions at the local skate park encouraged physical activity, confidence, and teamwork, while a bush walk introduced children to the importance of caring for the environment.

Along the trail, they learned to identify native plants and wildlife and discussed ways to protect natural habitats with Nat from Holbrook Landcare.

The program also welcomed Bunnings

incursions, where children rolled up their sleeves for creative building and gardening projects. These hands-on sessions taught practical skills and sustainability, inspiring young minds to think about how small actions can make a big difference. The goal of our program is to create opportunities that blend fun with learning. "We want children to feel connected to their community and to understand the value of teamwork, creativity, environmental care and build the autonomy to become active citizens of our community. "Every activity is designed to build confidence and curiosity."

Committed to our region.

HOLBROOK TENNIS

The tennis season is underway with good weather on hand for the first week. Unfortunately we had to forfeit Sect 3B due to lack of player availability but Sect 2 had a pretty good workout against the Walbundrie team. The Brooker team were in front after 6 sets but the much younger men and ladies from out west put it together and played the better tennis to run out winners, 12/81 to 4/51. Good to see a couple of new ladies on court in Kellie and Marni.

An early prediction will be that the Walbundrie team will be playing finals.

Don't forget the Wednesday afternoon hit up from 5.30 - 6 pm. All welcome.

PREPARING YOUR PROPERTY TO MINIMISE THE RISK OF SNAKES

1. Keep your property clean:

Snakes are attracted to areas with food sources, such as rodents and insects. To reduce their presence, keep your property clean and free of debris, clutter, and food waste.

2. Keep grass and vegetation short: Snakes prefer areas with long grass and vegetation to hide in.

3. Remove all other potential hiding places: snakes can also hide in piles of leaves, rocks, and debris. Regularly inspect and clear these areas to reduce their hiding places.

4. Seal entry points around the property: snakes can enter buildings through gaps in walls, doors, and windows.

5. Secure garbage and compost bins as many snakes are attracted to food waste and compost.

6. Be alert and aware: When working or walking on your property, be aware of your surroundings and keep an eye out for snakes. Wear protective clothing such as boots and long pants to reduce the risk of snake bites.

VECARE HEALTH - BULK BILLING INITIATIVE FOR ALL PATIENTS FROM 1ST NOVEMBER

At Vecare Health, we believe everyone deserves access to quality healthcare — without cost being a barrier. That's why we're excited to announce a Bulk Billing Trial across our Holbrook and Walla Walla clinics, starting 1st Nov 2025, to assess if full bulk billing can be sustained long-term, especially with the new government incentive program.

What's Changing: Under the Australian Government Bulk Billing Incentive Program (effective 1 November 2025), all eligible "NRA" (Non-Referred Attendance) item numbers can now be bulk billed — not just for certain patient groups.

This means all patients with a valid Medicare card can be bulk billed for standard GP consultations. Previously, only children under 15 or those with a Concession, Health Care or Pension Card were eligible.

No Out-of-Pocket Fees for Standard GP Consultations (items in the NRA list). During the trial, no out-of-pocket fees apply for the following common consultation types: not the complete list

Type of Visit	Item No.	Description
Brief consultation	3	Short appointment
Standard consultation	23	Routine visit (up to 20 mins)
Long consultation	36	Complex issues (20–40 mins)
Prolonged consultation	44	Extended consultation (over 40 mins)
Telehealth consults		Phone or video consultation
Health assessments		e.g. 75+ Health Check etc.
Chronic disease management	965 / 967	GP Care Plans & Reviews

Private Fees apply for some services. Medicare rebates for some services still do not cover the costs and will attract a private fee or some are not eligible for Medicare rebates.

These include (but are not limited to):

- Skin checks, excisions, biopsies, and sutures
- All procedures
- Iron infusions
- Commercial driver medicals (Taxi, Boat, Truck, etc.)
- Employment or insurance medicals/reports
- Services for patients without a Medicare card

Check Before You Book. To avoid any surprises, please ask our reception team before booking if your appointment will be bulk billed or if private fees apply.

Our Commitment: This 3–6-month trial reflects our continued commitment to making healthcare affordable and accessible in our region. Our aim is to balance accessibility with the long-term viability of our rural practice so that we can continue to provide consistent, high-quality care for all.
